Being Muslim The Bosnian Way:

Being Muslim the Bosnian Way Tone Bringa, 2020-09-01 I have been able to follow a Bosnian community over a period of six years during which it has undergone dramatic changes In the late 1980s people were working hard against economic crisis In 1990 they were full of optimism for the future In January 1993 the village was in fear surrounded by war on all sides In April 1993 it was attacked by Croat forces In October 1993 none of the Muslims in the village remained They had either fled been placed in detention camps or been killed Thus begins Tone Bringa s moving ethnographic account of Bosnian Muslims lives in a rural village located near Sarajevo Although they represent a majority of the population in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina Bosnian Muslims are still members of a minority culture in the region that was once Yugoslavia The question of ethno national identity has become paramount in this society and the author focuses on religion as the defining characteristic of identity Bringa pays particular attention to the roles that women play in defining Muslim identities and she examines the importance of the household as a Muslim identity sphere In so doing she illuminates larger issues of what constitutes nationality This is a gripping and heartfelt account of a community that has been torn apart by ethno political conflict It will attract readers of all backgrounds who want to learn more about one of the most intractable wars of the late twentieth century and the people who have been so tragically affected Balkan holocausts? David Bruce MacDonald, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Comparing and contrasting propaganda in Serbia and Croatia from 1986 to 1999 this book analyses each group s contemporary interpretations of history and current events It offers a detailed discussion of Holocaust imagery and the history of victim centred writing in nationalist theory including the links between the comparative genocide debate the so called Holocaust industry and Serbian and Croatian nationalism There is a detailed analysis of Serbian and Croatian propaganda over the Internet detailing how and why the Internet war was as important as the ground wars in Kosovo Croatia and Bosnia Hercegovina and a theme by theme analysis of Serbian and Croatian propaganda using contemporary media sources novels academic works and journals Being German, Becoming Muslim Esra Özyürek, 2014-11-23 Every year more and more Europeans including Germans are embracing Islam It is estimated that there are now up to one hundred thousand German converts a number similar to that in France and the United Kingdom What stands out about recent conversions is that they take place at a time when Islam is increasingly seen as contrary to European values Being German Becoming Muslim explores how Germans come to Islam within this antagonistic climate how they manage to balance their love for Islam with their society s fear of it how they relate to immigrant Muslims and how they shape debates about race religion and belonging in today s Europe Esra Özyürek looks at how mainstream society marginalizes converts and questions their national loyalties In turn converts try to disassociate themselves from migrants of Muslim majority countries and promote a denationalized Islam untainted by Turkish or Arab traditions Some German Muslims believe that once cleansed of these accretions the Islam that surfaces fits in well with German values and lifestyle Others even argue that being a German Muslim is wholly compatible with the older values of the German Enlightenment Being German Becoming Muslim provides a fresh window into the connections and tensions stemming from a growing religious phenomenon in Germany and beyond

The Social Construction of Man, the State and War Franke Wilmer, 2004-04-16 The Social Construction of Man the State and War is the first book on conflict in the former Yugoslavia to look seriously at the issue of ethnic identity rather than treating it as a given an unquestionable variable Combining detailed analysis with a close reading of historical narratives documentary evidence and first hand interviews conducted in the former Yugoslavia Wilmer sheds new light on how ethnic identity is constructed and what that means for the future of peace and sovereignty throughout the world Can Islam Be

French? John R. Bowen, 2011-11-06 Bowen asks not the usual question how well are Muslims integrating in France but rather how do French Muslims think about Islam In particular Bowen examines how French Muslims are fashioning new Islamic institutions and developing new ways of reasoning and teaching He looks at some of the quite distinct ways in which mosques have connected with broader social and political forces how Islamic educational entrepreneurs have fashioned niches for new forms of schooling and how major Islamic public actors have set out a specifically French approach to religious norms from publisher description

The Ottomans and the Balkans Fikret Adanir, Suraiya Faruqi, 2002-04-01 This discussion of historiography concerning the Ottoman Empire should be viewed in the context of our discipline's self examination which certainly has been encouraged by recent conflicts in southeastern Europe and the Middle East Our contributors analyse the fashion in which the historiographies established in various national states have viewed the Ottoman Empire and its legacy At the same time they discuss the links of twentieth century historiography with the rich historical tradition of the Ottoman Empire itself both in its metropolitan and its provincial forms The struggle against anachronisms born from the nationalist paradigm in history doubtless constitutes the most important common feature of these otherwise very diverse studies
