Beginning From Jerusalem Christian Expansion Through Seventeen Centuries:

Beginning from Jerusalem John Foster, 1956      The Will to Arise Caleb Oluremi Oladipo, 2006 One of the most important developments of Christianity in the twentieth century was its transformation in South Africa where it became a vibrant religion rooted in African idioms and cultures The church also became engaged in the struggle against social and political injustice and church leaders employed the vocabularies of faith to secure civil liberty This hard hitting book focuses on post apartheid Christian character and establishes the theological and spiritual authority of African Christians calling contemporary Christians to renew their faith and Christian identity It shows too that one cannot seriously consider contemporary Christianity apart from the African experience      Philosophy, Science, and Theology of Mission in the 19th and 20th Centuries: The philosophy and science of mission J. A. B. Jongeneel, 1995      The Expansion of Christianity in the First Three Centuries Adolf von Harnack, 1905      The Development of the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit in the Yoruba

(African) Indigenous Christian Movement Caleb Oluremi Oladipo, 1996 Africa will have more than 325 million Christians by the year 2000 making it the most populous Christian continent in the world In this book Dr Oladipo addresses questions about Christian dogma as believers continue to enlarge the boundaries of Christian proclamation He points out that conversion in Africa is the result of African ability to enliven cherished Christian doctrines in their indigenous definition of the Christian faith The book touches a raw nerve by illustrating that religious awareness is the indivisible entity unified by particular human efforts to grasp the totality of existence The Development of the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit in the Yoruba African Indigenous Christian Movement is unique and different written in a spirit of mutual enrichment and transformation

The Expansion of Christianity in the First Three Centuries: book III (cont'd) The names of Christian believers. The organization of the Christian community. Counter-movements. book IV. The spread of the Christian religion Adolf von Harnack, 1905      The Mission and Expansion of Christianity in the First Three Centuries Adolf von Harnack, 1908      Union Catalog of the Graduate Theological Union Graduate Theological Union. Library, 1972

National Union Catalog, 1956 Includes entries for maps and atlases      The Jews in Palestine in the Eighteenth Century Y. Barnay, 1992 Research reveals a clear connection between the legal and social status of the Jews in Palestine in the 18th century and their ties with the Diaspora The Jews who had immigrated to Palestine in that period were mostly poor and elderly The country was economically backward and politically unstable which made it impossible for the immigrants to support themselves through productive work Therefore they lived off the contributions of their brethren overseas Taxes and fees imposed by the Ottoman rulers increased the financial desperation of the Jews in Palestine Prohibitions against young unmarried immigrant men and women made for an unstable population largely of old men many of whom died shortly after immigrating Families succumbed to disease earthquakes and famine but in the face of these problems the Jewish communities in Palestine persevered When financial support ceased at the beginning of the 18th century it caused a sever crisis in the Yishuv the Jewish settlement in Palestine The Jews were unable to repay their debts to the Moslems and many left the country In 1726 a central organization was established in Istanbul to coordinate the Diaspora financial support of the Jews in Palestine This Istanbul Committee of Officials oversaw the collection of support money for the Yishuv managed the Palestine community's budget established regulations for governing the communities and settled disputes between the Jews and the gentiles The importance of the Yishuv in the spiritual life of the Diaspora alone could not ensure the continuation of the Istanbul Officials was crucial Fortunately a registry containing copies of 500 letters written by the Istanbul Committee in the mid 18th century was preserved in the archives of the Jewish Theological Seminary These letters reveal the extensive activity involving the Istanbul Committee and the Ottoman authorities the Jews of Palestine and the Diaspora In this English translation of the original 1982 volume published in Hebrew Barnai has updated his research to take into account recent scholarship He concludes that during the period under review the number of Jews in the Yishuv was actually very small but they were completely dependent upon the charitable financial support of their brethren overseas as well as the goodwill of the country's rulers
