Beginnings of Russian Industrialization, 1800-1860 William L. Blackwell, 2015-12-08 Since Russian tradition and institutions resemble those of Asia and Africa as much if not more than the patterns of Western societies the pre 1917 industrial history of Russia as the last part of the tsarist regime provides one of the most important examples of early industrialization in world history In this broad ambitious reconstruction of the early stages of Russia's industrial development English Professor Blackwell shows that the period from 1800 to 1860 was one of necessary preparation for the rapid industrialization of the later 19th century The book is based upon a wide variety of primary and secondary sources in the Russian language Originally published in 1968 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Beginnings of Russian Industrialization, 1800-1860 William L. Blackwell, Princeton University Press, 1970 Selling to the Masses Marjorie L. Hilton, 2012-01-08 In Selling to the Masses Marjorie L. Hilton presents a captivating history of consumer culture in Russia from the 1880s to the early 1930s She highlights the critical role of consumerism as a vehicle for shaping class and gender identities modernity urbanism and as a mechanism of state power in the transition from tsarist autocracy to Soviet socialism Beginning in the late nineteenth century Russia witnessed a rise in mass production consumer goods advertising and new retail venues such as arcades and department stores These mirrored similar developments in other European countries and reflected a growing quest for leisure activities luxuries and a modern lifestyle As Hilton reveals retail commerce played a major role in developing Russian public culture it affected celebrations of religious holidays engaged diverse groups of individuals defined behaviors and rituals of city life inspired new interpretations of masculinity and femininity and became a visible symbol of state influence and provision Through monarchies revolution civil war and monumental changes in the political sphere Russia's distinctive culture of consumption was contested and recreated Leaders of all stripes continued to look to the commerce of exchange as a key element in appealing to the masses garnering political support and promoting a modern nation Hilton follows the evolution of retailing and retailers alike from crude outdoor stalls to elite establishments through the competition of private versus state run stores during the NEP and finally to a system of total state control indifferent workers rationing and shortages under a consolidating Stalinist state The Spread of Modern Industry to the Periphery Since 1871 Kevin H. Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Ever since the Industrial Revolution of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries industrialization has been the key to modern economic growth The fact that modern industry originated in Britain and spread initially to north western Europe and North America implied a dramatic divergence in living standards between the industrial North or West and a non industrial or even de industrializing South or Rest This nineteenth century divergence which had profound economic military and geopolitical implications has been studied in great detail by many economists and historians Today this divergence between the West and the Rest is visibly unraveling as economies in Asia Latin America and even sub Saharan Africa converge on the rich economies of Europe and North America This phenomenon which is set to define the twenty first century both economically and politically has also been the subject of a considerable amount of research Less appreciated however are the deep historical roots of this convergence process and in particular of the spread of modern industry to the global periphery This volume fills this gap by providing a systematic comparative historical account of the spread of modern manufacturing beyond its traditional heartland to Southern and Eastern Europe the Middle East Asia Africa and Latin America or what we call the poor periphery It identifies the timing of this convergence finding that this was fastest in the interwar and post World War II years not the more recent miracle growth years It also identifies which driving forces were common to all periphery countries and which were not

States and Social Revolutions Theda Skocpol, 2015-09-29 State structures international forces and class relations Theda Skocpol shows how all three combine to explain the origins and accomplishments of social revolutionary transformations Social revolutions have been rare but undeniably of enormous importance in modern world history States and Social Revolutions provides a new frame of reference for analyzing the causes the conflicts and the outcomes of such revolutions It develops a rigorous comparative historical analysis of three major cases the French Revolution of 1787 through the early 1800s the Russian Revolution of 1917 through the 1930s and the Chinese Revolution of 1911 through the 1960s Believing that existing theories of revolution both Marxist and non Marxist are inadequate to explain the actual historical patterns of revolutions Skocpol urges us to adopt fresh perspectives Above all she maintains that states conceived as administrative and coercive organizations potentially autonomous from class controls and interests must be made central to explanations of revolutions
