Contest for Rule in Eighteenth-Century Iran Charles Melville, 2022-07-14 This volume explores the troubled eighteenth century in Iran between the collapse of the Safavids and the establishment of the new Qajar dynasty in the early decades of the nineteenth century Despite the striking military successes of Nader Shah to defeat the Afghan invaders drive back the Ottomans in the west and launch campaigns into India and Central Asia Iran steadily lost territory in the Caucasus and the east where Persian arms failed to recover lands lost to the Afghans and the Ozbeks The chapters of this book cover the continuity and change over this transitional period from a range of perspectives including political history historiography art and material culture They illuminate the changes in Iran's internal conditions including the legitimising legacy of the Safavid period in court chronicles the rise of Nader Shah and his influence on the idea of Iran as well as the art of successive dynasties competing for power and prestige The volume also addresses Iran's changed international situation by examining relations with Russia Britain and India the result of which would contribute to its re-emergence with a curtailed presence in the new world order of European dominance Gems in the Early Modern World Michael Bycroft, Sven Dupré, 2018-11-27

This edited collection is an interdisciplinary study of gems in the early modern world It examines the relations between the art science and technology of gems and it does so against the backdrop of an expanding global trade in gems The eleven chapters are organised into three parts The first part sets the scene by describing how gems moved around the early modern world how they were set in motion and how they were pulled together in the course of their travels The second part is about value It asks why people valued gems how they determined the value of a given gem and how the value of a gem was connected to its perceived place of origin The third part deals with the skills involved in cutting polishing and mounting gems and how these skills were transmitted and articulated by artisans The common themes of all these chapters are materials knowledge and global trade The contributors to this volume focus on the material properties of gems such as their weight and hardness on the knowledge involved in exchanging them and valuing them and on the cultural consequences of the expanding trade in gems in Eurasia and the Americas Koh-i-Noor William Dalrymple, Anita Anand, 2017-06-15 Riveting This highly readable and entertaining book finally sets the record straight on the history of the Koh-i-Noor Tarquin Hall Sunday Times Dynamic original and supremely readable Maya Jasanoff Guardian The first comprehensive and authoritative history of the Koh-i-Noor arguably the most celebrated and mythologised jewel in the world On 29 March 1849 the ten year old maharaja of the Punjab was ushered into the magnificent Mirrored Hall at the centre of the great fort in Lahore There in a public ceremony the frightened but dignified child handed over great swathes of the richest country in India in a formal Act of Submission to a private corporation the East India Company He was also compelled to hand over to the British monarch Queen Victoria perhaps the single most valuable object on the subcontinent the celebrated Koh i Noor diamond The Mountain of Light The history of the Koh i Noor may have been one woven together from gossip of Delhi bazaars but it was to become the accepted version Only now is it finally challenged freeing the diamond from the fog of mythology that has clung to it for so long The resulting history is one of greed murder torture colonialism and appropriation told through an impressive slice of south and central Asian history It ends with the jewel in its current controversial setting in the crown of Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother which was deemed too contentious to be used by Camilla the Queen Consort in King Charles s coronation Masterly powerful and erudite this is history at its most compelling and invigorating
