Believing Is Seeing Observations On The Mysteries:

Believing is Seeing Errol Morris, 2011 In Believing is Seeing Academy Award winning director Errol Morris turns his eye to the nature of truth in photography In his inimitable style Morris untangles the mysteries behind an eclectic range of documentary photographs from the ambrotype of three children found clasped in the hands of an unknown soldier at Gettysburg to the indelible portraits of the WPA photography project Each essay in the book presents the reader with a conundrum and investigates the relationship between photographs and the real world they supposedly record With his keen sense of irony skepticism and humor Morris reveals in this investigations how photographs can obscure as much as they reveal and how what we see is often determined by our beliefs Errol Morris ,2011 A Wilderness of Error Errol Morris, 2014-01-22 Soon to be an FX Docuseries from Emmy Award Winning Producer Marc Smerling The Jinx featuring the author Errol Morris Academy Award winning filmmaker Errol Morris examines one of the most notorious and mysterious murder trials of the twentieth century In this profoundly original meditation on truth and the justice system Errol Morris a former private detective and director of The Thin Blue Line delves deeply into the infamous Jeffrey MacDonald murder case MacDonald whose pregnant wife and two young daughters were brutally murdered in 1970 was convicted of the killings in 1979 and remains in prison today The culmination of an investigation spanning over twenty years and a masterly reinvention of the true crime thriller A Wilderness of Error is a shocking book because it shows that everything we have been told about the case is deeply unreliable and that crucial elements of case against MacDonald are simply not true Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Mark K. Fulk, 2021-04-13 Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Radical Contemplative offers its readers a scholarly examination of her essays within the context of philosophy and aesthetic theory This study sets up a dialogue between her works and their philosophical counterparts in France and Germany including the works of Hannah Arendt Jacques Derrida Roland Barthes and Walter Benjamin Artists and concepts discussed in relation to Sontag's essays include the works of Andy Warhol Pop Art French New Wave Cinema the music of John Cage and the cinematic art of Robert Bresson Leni Riefenstahl Ingmar Bergman and Jean Luc Godard Her aesthetic formalism is compared with Harold Bloom and this is the first volume to examine her late works and their position within the American events of 9 11 01 and the War on Terror ism Lincoln's Gamble Todd Brewster, 2015-08-11 A brilliant authoritative and riveting account of the most critical six months in Abraham Lincoln's presidency when he penned the Emancipation Proclamation and changed the course of the Civil War The Transparency Paradox Ida Koivisto, 2022-06-16 Transparency has become a new norm States international organizations and even private businesses have sought to bolster their legitimacy by invoking transparency in their activities This growth in popularity was made possible through two interconnected trends the idea that transparency is inherently good and that the actual meaning of the term is becoming harder and harder to pin down Thus far this has remained undertheorized The Transparency Paradox is an insightful account of the hidden logic of the ideal of transparency and its legal manifestations It shows how transparency is a covertly conflicted ideal The book argues that counter to popular understanding truth and legitimacy cannot but form a problematic trade off in transparency practices Visual

Communication Theory and Research S. Fahmy,M. Bock,W. Wanta,2014-05-01 In today s multimedia environment visuals are essential and expected parts of storytelling However the visual communication research field is fragmented into several sub areas making study difficult Fahmy Bock and Wanta note trends and discuss the challenges of conducting analysis of images across print broadcast and online media The Scene of the Mass Crime Christian Delage,Peter

Goodrich,2013-05-07 The Scene of the Mass Crime takes up the unwritten history of the peculiar yet highly visible form of war crimes trials These trials are the first and continuing site of the interface of law history and film From Nuremberg to the contemporary trials in Cambodia film in particular has been crucial both as evidence of atrocity and as the means of publicizing the proceedings But what does film bring to justice Can law successfully address war crimes atrocities genocide What do the trials actually show What form of justice is done and how does it relate to ordinary courts and proceedings What lessons can be drawn from this history for the very topical political issue of filming civil and criminal trials This book takes up the diversity and complexity of these idiosyncratic and in strict terms generally extra legal medial situations Drawing on a fascinating diversity of public trials and filmic responses from the Trial of the Gang of Four to the Gacaca local courts of Rwanda to the filmic symbolism of 9 11 from Soviet era show trials to Nazi People s Courts leading international scholars address the theatrical political filmic and symbolic importance of show trials in making history legitimating regimes and most surprising of all in attempting to heal trauma through law and through film These essays will be of considerable interest to those working on international criminal law transitional justice genocide studies and the relationship between law and film

Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography Henrik Gustafsson,2019-05-24 This book offers a rare and innovative consideration of an enduring tendency in postwar art to explore places devoid of human agents in the wake of violent encounters To see the scenery together with the crime elicits a double interrogation not merely of a physical site but also of its formation as an aesthetic artefact and ultimately of our own acts of looking and imagining Closely engaging with a vast array of works made by artists filmmakers and photographers each who has forged a distinct vantage point on the aftermath of crime and conflict the study selectively maps the afterlife of landscape in search of the political and ethical agency of the image By way of a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography brings landscape studies into close dialogue with contemporary theory by paying sustained attention to how the gesture of retracing past events facilitates new configurations of the present and future Peace Photography Frank Möller,2018-12-17 This study thinks with photography about peace It asks how photography can represent peace and how such representation can contribute to peace The book offers an original critique of the almost exclusive focus on violence in recent work on visual culture and presents a completely new research agenda within the overall framework of visual peace research Critically engaging with both photojournalism and art photography in light of peace theories it looks for visual representations or anticipations of peace peace or peace as a potentiality in the work of selected photographers including Robert Capa and Richard Mosse thus reinterpreting photography from the Spanish Civil War to current anti migration politics in Europe The book argues that peace photography is episodic culturally specific process oriented and considerate of both the past and the future
