Changing Practices for the L2 Writing Classroom Nigel A. Caplan, Ann Johns, 2019-04-26 This volume was written to make the case for changes in second language writing practices away from the five paragraph essay and toward purposeful meaningful writing instruction As the volume editors say If you have already rejected the five paragraph essay we offer validation and classroom tested alternatives If you are new to teaching L2 writing we introduce critical issues you will need to consider as you plan your lessons and as you consider review the textbooks and handbooks that continue to promote the teaching of the five paragraph essay If you need ammunition to present to colleagues and administrators we present theory research and pedagogy that will benefit students from elementary to graduate school If you are skeptical about our claims we invite you to review the research presented here and consider what your students could do beyond writing a five paragraph essay if you enacted these changes in practice Part 1 discusses what the five paragraph essay is not it is not a very old established form of writing it is not a genre and it is not universal Part 2 looks at writing practices to show the essay s ineffectiveness in elementary schools secondary schools first year writing classes university writing courses undergraduate discipline courses and graduate school Part 3 looks beyond the classroom at testing At the end of each chapter the authors all well known in the field of second language writing suggest changes to teaching practices based on their theoretical approach and classroom experience The book closes by reviewing some of the major questions raised in the book by exploring which questions have been left unanswered and by offering suggestions for teachers who want to move away from the five paragraph essay An assignment sequence for genre aware writing instruction is included Teaching L2 Composition Dana R. Ferris, John S. Hedgcock, 2023-03-23 This popular comprehensive theory to practice text helps teachers understand the task of writing L2 writers the different pedagogical models used in current composition teaching and reading writing connections Moving from general themes to specific pedagogical concerns it includes practice oriented chapters on the role of genre task construction course and lesson design writing assessment feedback error treatment and classroom language grammar vocabulary style instruction Each chapter includes Questions for Reflection Further Reading and Resources Reflection and Review and Application Activities An ideal text for L2 teacher preparation courses and in service writing instructors the text offers an accessible synthesis of theory and research that enables readers to see the relevance of the field s knowledge base to their own present or future classroom settings and student writers New to the Fourth Edition Updated with new research theory and developments in the field throughout the text Visually accessible layout and design for improved reader navigability Expanded attention to technological affordances for writing pedagogy Stand alone reference list in each chapter Support Material with activities and resources from the text also available on the book s webpage at www.routledge.com 9780367436780 Research Writing Rewired Dawn Reed, Troy Hicks, 2015-10-22 Our students are online constantly and yet research shows that only half of teachers say digital tools make writing instruction easier Research Writing Rewired seeks to turn that statistic upside down Or rather upside right If we want to ready students for a globalized world 100% of teachers ought to consider technology an asset to any kind of writing assert authors Dawn Reed and Troy Hicks But the main wiring still has to be the ELA standards and the essential questions at the heart of each content area To that end the authors show you how to use digital tools within a multi week inquiry unit to increase students engagement as they write to learn and share knowledge Their book a clear model for tech rich research writing that will inform your own inquiry driven units Guiding components include An inquiry based technology rich unit on identity and culture that provides learners with opportunities to engage with the very same issues that are written about and discussed by citizens of a global society 28 model lessons and a framework including extensions tech tips and activities that blend print image apps and video so students build multi literacy skills day by day Recurring use of best practices like formative assessment close reading think alouds and teaching key skills including analyzing and synthesizing annotating checking credibility of sources

Sociocultural and Power-Relational Dimensions of Multilingual Writing Amir Kalan,2021-05-14

This book examines the writing practices of three adult multilingual writers through the prism of their writing in English as an additional language It illustrates some of the social cultural and political contexts of the writers literacy activities and discusses how these impact their literate and intellectual lives It reflects on the para and meta textual dimensions of writing because organic writing practices are almost always performed within sociocultural and power relational contexts In our highly compartmentalized educational structures writing education has been severed from those organic components focusing mainly on writing stylistics This book proposes creating space for organic writing practices in our everyday writing pedagogies and argues for a writing pedagogy that acknowledges the complex interactions of social emotional and identity related layers of writing

Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence-Based Practices to Improve Writing Instruction

VanSlander, Jennifer,2023-10-11 Writing is a critical skill for academic and professional success yet it is often neglected in schools According to achievement data only a quarter of students in the United States are proficient writers indicating a significant need for improvement in writing instruction One contributing factor to this problem is the lack of school and district leadership in writing instruction School improvement efforts are often concentrated on reading and math leaving writing instruction overlooked Additionally issues related to writer identities self efficacy in writing and educator training can also impact the effectiveness of instructional leadership in this critical subject Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence Based Practices to Improve Writing Instruction edited by Jennifer VanSlander of Columbus State University provides within this peer reviewed book an exploration of evidence based practices aimed at developing instructional leaders and enhancing student achievement in writing It covers a broad range of topics related to writing instruction including learning theories conceptual models and the latest empirical research associated with the supervision organization implementation and monitoring of writing programs and instructional approaches With its emphasis on writer identities self efficacy equitable and inclusive practices curriculum planning and implementation assessment instructional frameworks and managing instructional change this book provides educators with a comprehensive guide to improving writing instruction It is an essential resource for educators who seek to increase the effectiveness of instructional leadership and writing instruction at the classroom school or district level
