Blue Twilight Nature Creationism And American Religion

James M. Childs

Blue Twilight Nature Creationism And American Religion:

Blue Twilight Langdon Gilkey, Gilkey's latest work takes the measure of the current American religious and cultural crisis, assesses recent theological responses to it, and shows how these illumine our understanding of the ongoing creationism controversy. Throughout, Gilkey articulates a faith stance responsive to the contemporary world of radical pluralism and moral uncertainty without retreating to simplistic dogmatism. Gilkey's vision of a blue twilight in which light fights with dark in religion and culture stands as a stark reminder of what is at stake in the future of American religious life. Regenerative Urban Development, Climate Change and the Common Good Beth Caniglia, Beatrice Frank, John L. Knott, Jr., Kenneth S. Sagendorf, Eugene A. Wilkerson, 2019-08-06 This volume focuses on the theory and practice of the regenerative development paradigm that is rapidly displacing sustainability as the most fertile ground for climate change adaptation research. This book brings together key thinkers in this field to develop a meaningful synthesis between the existing practice of regenerative development and the input of scholars in the social sciences. It begins by providing an expert introduction to the history, principles, and practices of regenerative development before going on to present a thorough theoretical examination by known theorists from disciplines including sociology, geography, and ethics. A section on regenerative development practices illustrates the need to significantly advance our understanding of how urbanization, climate change, and inequality interact at every scale of development work. Finally, the book ends with a serious consideration of the ways in which integrated systems thinking in higher education could result in a curriculum for the next generation of regenerative development professionals. Regenerative Urban Development, Climate Change and the Common Good will be of great interest to students, scholars, and practitioners of regenerative development, climate change, urban planning, and public policy. Resources for Preaching and Worship-Year A Hannah Ward, Jennifer Wild, 2004-01-01 This is the third volume published in a three-volume set of lectionary resources providing preachers and worship leaders of all denominations a host of written material for worship and reflection. Designed to complement the three volumes in WJK's acclaimed Texts for Preaching, this book weaves together a rich tapestry of quotations, meditations, poems, and prayers. With material from both classic and contemporary spiritual writings, Resources for Preaching and Worship complements the lectionary readings for Sundays and important festival days in the church's year. Biblical and thematic indexes are included. Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so. These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology. The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa. Dictionary Of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-05-15 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non-academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected. It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought Humanity Before God William Schweiker, Michael A. Johnson, Kevin Jung, Much of the rampant violence in the world today seems rooted in religion and daily we see its vast potential for both creation and destruction In the face of religious extremism religious pluralism and globalization it has become profoundly important to reassess what the three often conflicting Abrahamic traditions affirm about being human before God

Ethics in the Community of Promise James M.

Childs,1992 In this excellent and accessible introduction now in a second edition Childs helpfully articulates the shared features of Christian faith and shows how that communal commitment forms our values character virtues and eagerness to do what is right Who we are informs what we choose This dynamic dialogical basis for ethics is an open framework Childs applies it to a host of tough real life dilemmas such as affirmative action end of life decisions medical ethics truth telling environmental justice and war making Previously published by Fortress Press in 1992 as Faith Formation and Decision the new edition updates discussions throughout adds numerous cases and illustrations adds questions for discussion and items for further reading and contains a new section on courage Chasing Belief Wayne L. Krefting,2021-09-16 Every day the sun rises and the sun sets The inconceivably immense cosmos goes on without stopping taking no notice of our life our death or our quest for meaningfulness Humans have always chased belief sought meaning in the world transcendent to the personal and particular amid the ambiguous mixture of beauty and horror all around us But the traditional symbols and concepts the narrative roadmaps that once sustained and directed belief have changed and are increasingly seen as meaningless divorced from the reality of the physical world in which we live especially in the West and for many within Western Christianity It is time to create new transformed concepts for those moral and ethical religious teachings compatible with our modern self understanding We need new wineskins that remain faithful to important traditions but also find a basis beyond the personal and preferential a transcendent perspective that thinks and believes both scientifically and religiously as we chase belief Chasing Belief challenges traditional models and thought patterns of religious language and ideas to plant the seeds of a new transformative spirituality that gives meaning and hope to the life we share on this mote in the cosmic sea

Issues in Science and Theology: What is Life? Dirk Evers,Michael Fuller,Antje Jackelén,Knut-Willy Sæther,2015-06-03 This book explores the concept of Life from a range of perspectives Divided into three parts it first examines the concept of Life from physics to biology It then presents insights on the concept from the perspectives of philosophy theology and ethics The book concludes with chapters on the hermeneutics of Life and pays special attention to the Biosemiotics approach to the concept The question What is Life has been deliberated by the greatest minds throughout human history Life as we know it is not a substance or fundamental property but a complex process It is not an easy task to develop an unequivocal approach towards Life combining scientific semiotic philosophical theological and ethical perspectives In its combination of these perspectives and its wide ranging scope this book opens up levels and identifies issues which can serve as intersections for meaningful interdisciplinary discussions of Life in its different aspects The book includes the four plenary lectures and selected revised and extended papers from workshops of the 14th European Conference on Science and Theology ECST XIV held in Tartu Estonia April 2012
