Blues For Mister Charlie:

Blues for Mister Charlie James Baldwin, 1955-04-25 An award winning play from one of America's most brilliant writers about a murder in a small Southern town loosely based on the 1955 killing of Emmett Till A play with fires of fury in its belly tears of anguish in its eyes a roar of protest in its throat The New York Times James Baldwin turns a murder and its aftermath into an inquest in which even the most well intentioned whites are implicated and in which even a killer receives his share of compassion In a small Southern town a white man murders a black man then throws his body in the weeds With this act of violence James Baldwin launches an unsparing and at times agonizing probe of the wounds of race For where once a white storekeeper could have shot a boy like Richard Henry with impunity times have changed And centuries of brutality and fear patronage and contempt are about to erupt in a moment of truth as devastating as a shotgun blast Blues for
