Cultural Intelligence (Youth, Family, and Culture) David A. Livermore, 2009-02-01 Twenty first century society is diverse and Christians must be able to understand other cultures and communicate effectively between and among them Following up on the bestselling Hurt Inside the World of Today's Teenagers this new addition to the Youth Family and Culture series explores the much needed skill of Cultural Intelligence CQ the ability to work effectively across national ethnic and even organizational cultures While rooted in sound scholarly research Cultural Intelligence is highly practical and accessible to general readers It will benefit students as well as guide ministry leaders interested in increasing their cultural awareness and sensitivity Packed with assessment tools simulations case studies and exercises Cultural Intelligence will help transform individuals and organizations into effective intercultural communicators of the gospel

EXCERPT What do you do when you encounter someone who isn't like you How do you feel What goes on inside you How do you relate to him or her These are the kinds of questions we want to explore in this book Few things are more basic to life than expressing love and respect for people who look think believe act and see differently than we do We want to adapt to the barrage of cultures around us while still remaining true to ourselves We want to let the world change us so that we can be part of changing the world And we want to move from the desire to love across the chasm of cultural difference to the ability to express our love for people of difference Relating lovingly to our fellow human beings is central to what it means to be human And when it comes down to it Christian ministry at its core is interacting with all kinds of people in ways that give them glimpses of Jesus in us The billions of us sharing planet Earth together have so much in common We're all born We all die We're all created in the image of God We eat sleep persevere and care for our young We long for meaning and purpose and we develop societies with those around us But the way we go about the many things we have in common is deeply rooted in our unique personalities and cultures So although we have so much in common we have as much or more about us that's different

SPIRITUAL WARFARE: A Struggle for Truth Russell Sharrock, 2007-03-01 Much in the Church is being touted as biblical spiritual warfare even to changing it from being spiritual to be geographical This book critic's spiritual warfare teaching comparing it to the Bible and offers a biblically reasoned discussion on spiritual warfare

Globalizing Theology Craig Ott, Harold A. Netland, 2006-10-01 One of the most powerful forces in the twenty first century is the increasing phenomenon of globalization In nearly every realm of human activity traditional boundaries are disappearing and people worldwide are more interconnected than ever Christianity has also become more aware of global realities and the important role of the church in non Western countries Church leaders must grapple with the implications for theology and ministry in an ever shrinking world Globalizing Theology is a groundbreaking book that addresses these issues of vital importance to the church It contains articles from leading scholars including Tite Ti nou Kevin Vanhoozer Charles Van Engen M Daniel Carroll R Andrew Walls Vinoth Ramachandra and Paul Hiebert Topics covered include the challenges that globalization brings to theology how we can incorporate global perspectives into our thinking and the effect a more global theology has on a variety of important issues

Cultural Intelligence David A. Livermore, 2009-02 An intercultural ministry expert demonstrates the necessity of Cultural Intelligence for effectively serving an increasingly diverse church and world

Wesleyan Pneumatology, Pentecostal Mission, and the Missio Dei Jody B. Fleming, 2021-05-18 In Wesleyan Pneumatology Pentecostal Mission and the Missio Dei Jody B Fleming argues that missiology in a Wesleyan context has been heavily influenced by the Western worldview and needs renewal Spirituality is central to living in many non western cultures integrated with the physical world of everyday life Wesleyan traditions may need to renew and strengthen the pneumatology found in their mission theory and praxis As the center of Christianity is shifting to the global south Pentecostal and charismatic expressions of the faith are becoming more prominent Without forfeiting their solid foundations what might the Wesleyan traditions learn from their theological cousins about engagement with the Holy Spirit How might pneumatology be renewed in order to address spiritual beliefs found in other cultures in both global and local settings Renewal also includes the indigenous voice as essential for understanding cultural dynamics and spirituality Contextualization is not new to missiology and so mission theory is explored from Latin American scholars as another point for renewal Partnerships in mission and the role of the Holy Spirit are highlighted in the of field work conducted in Venezuela In Renewing the Spark the author suggests that a fresh look at pneumatology will more effectively articulate the gospel in holistic and spirit centered non western cultures
