Anyone Here Been Raped And Speaks English:

Anyone Here Been Raped and Speaks English? ,1981 Transnational Connections Ulf Hannerz,2002-01-04 This work provides an account of culture in an age of globalization Ulf Hannerz argues that in an ever more interconnected world national understandings of culture have become insufficient He explores the implications of boundary crossings and long distance cultural flows for established notions of the local community nation and modernity Hannerz not only engages with theoretical debates about culture and globalization but raises issues of how we think and live today His account of the experience of global culture encompasses a shouting match in a New York street about Salman Rushdie a papal visit to the Maya Indians kung fu dancers in Nigeria and Rastafarians in Amsterdam the nostalgia of foreign correspondents and the surprising experiences of tourists in a world city or on a Borneo photo safari Shooting the Messenger Paul Moorcraft,2011-10-31 Wars have dominated politics since history began In the modern era most of what the media reports on foreign conflicts comes from a small band of war correspondents As the furore over the Iraq Afghan and now the Libyan wars demonstrates Western governments and militaries often collude to keep their voters in the dark about the causes and the conduct of wars waged in their name In this entertaining and unspun account of modern war reporting the authors ask whether the media itself drives democracies to war Or does it serve to constrain evil ignorant and messianic leaders Are the heirs of William Howard Russell the first modern war reporter watchdogs or lapdogs In the age of Wikileaks and corrupt media empires what is the political impact of war correspondents Are they the heroes or harlots of their profession Race and Ethnicity Stephen Spencer,2014-03-14 Broad ranging and comprehensive this completely revised and updated textbook is a critical guide to issues and theories of race and ethnicity It shows how these concepts came into being during colonial domination and how they became central and until recently unquestioned aspects of social identity and division This book provides students with a detailed understanding of colonial and post colonial constructions changes and challenges to race as a source of social division and inequality Drawing upon rich international case studies from Australia Guyana Canada Malaysia the Caribbean Mexico Ireland and the UK the book clearly explains the different strands of theory which have been used to explain the dynamics of race These are critically scrutinised from biological based ideas to those of critical race theory This key text includes new material on changing multiculturalism immigration and fears about terrorism all of which are critically assessed Incorporating summaries chapter by chapter questions illustrations exercises and a glossary of terms this student friendly text also puts forward suggestions for further project work Broad in scope interactive and accessible this book is a key resource for undergraduate students of race and ethnicity across the social sciences Screening Bosnia Stephen Harper,2017-03-09 The Bosnian war of 1992 1995 was one of the most brutal conflicts to have erupted since the end of the Second World War But although the war occurred in Europe s backyard and received significant media coverage in the West relatively little scholarly attention has been devoted to cultural representations of the conflict Stephen Harper analyses how the war has been depicted in global cinema and television over the past quarter of a century Focusing on the representation of some of the war s major themes including humanitarian intervention the roles of NATO and the UN genocide rape and ethnic cleansing Harper explores the role of popular media culture in reflecting reinforcing and sometimes contesting nationalist ideologies

Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton, 2011-08-15 In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security In Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism s constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism s Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead Katanga 1960-63 Christopher Othen,2015-09-07 In King Leopold II s infamous Congo Free State at the turn of the century severed hands became a form of currency But some in the Belgian government had no sense of historical shame as they connived for an independent Katanga state in 1960 to protect Belgian mining interests What happened next was extraordinary It was an extremely uneven battle The UN fielded soldiers from twenty nations America paid the bills and the Soviets intrigued behind the scenes Yet to everyone s surprise the new nation s rag tag army of local gendarmes jungle tribesmen and controversially European mercenaries refused to give in For two and a half years Katanga the scrawniest underdog ever to fight a war held off the world with guerrilla warfare two faced diplomacy and some shady financial backing It even looked as if the Katangese might win Katanga 1960 63 tells for the first time the full story of the Congolese province that declared independence and found itself at war with the world Media Witnessing P. Frosh,A. Pinchevski,2008-11-27 From the Holocaust to 9 11 modern communications systems have incessantly exposed us to reports of distant and horrifying events experienced by strangers and brought to us through media technologies In this book leading scholars explore key questions concerning the truth status and broader implications of media witnessing Black, White and Grey Franz Krüger,2004 In South Africa the debate about journalism ethics has taken particular turns in contemporary times Issues of transformation and race have sparked heated debates in the profession This book grew out of these discussions It attempts to measure the traditional standards of journalism against the demands of a changing society Reclaiming Canadian Bodies Lynda Mannik,Karen McGarry,2015-02-27 The central focus of Reclaiming Canadian Bodies is the relationship between visual media the construction of Canadian national identity and notions of embodiment It asks how particular representations of bodies are constructed and performed within the context of visual and discursive mediated content The book emphasizes the ways individuals destabilize national mainstream visual tropes which in turn have the potential to destabilize nationalist messages Drawing upon rich empirical research and relevant theory the contributors ask how and why particular bodies of Estonian immigrants sports stars First Nations peoples self identified homosexuals and women are either promoted and upheld as Canadian bodies while others are marginalized in or excluded from media representations Essays are grouped into three sections Embodied Ideals The Embodiment of Others and Embodied Activism and Advocacy Written in an accessible style for a broad audience of scholars and students this volume is original within the field of visual media affect theory and embodiment due to its emphasis on detailed empirical and in some cases ethnographic research within a Canadian context
