

I love you, more than anything in this world, and nothing will ever change that." He kisses my forehead then leans back, catching my eyes again. "If you need someone to talk to, I'm here, and if not, your mom doesn't love you as much as I do, but I'm sure she'd hear you out too."

Students' Monthly, 1926 Abide Jamie Marie Ogiamien (Lampert), 2024-11-13 Abide was written in honor of my brother who passed away unexpectedly He was known for his sacrificial love and welcoming spirit by all who knew him I hope the parts of his story that I tell will encourage others to love without bias or limit as he did Grief is complex It is rarely if ever a single emotion This book was written for the grieving soul While it's my personal experience of grief faith and the many emotions intertwined My hope is that it reaches a grieving soul to provide comfort and reassurance This book starts with me in a pit of despair in physical agony from grief I worried constantly over the idea of my brother s salvation As I worried I wondered if he was safe in heaven and searched for answers God opened my eyes to his great love The fact that he would do the unthinkable for any of his children He reassured me that there was is no need to question his love or ability to save Looking back I can see God s personal touches throughout the small and big details of our tragedy So much so that my understanding of his lovingkindness has grown tenfold in light of the ways he cares so beautifully for the hurting heart Life is messy Humans are messy Grief is life altering and constantly changing It never leaves you it becomes a part of you Grief is the cost of love But God He is so much bigger and better than any pain or suffering we come across in this crazy world John 16:33 I am thankful our savior abides in us so we can follow his lead and abide in him What a gift to be so entangled by his loving kindness that our perspective of him as well as understanding of suffering is forever changed We were never meant to say goodbye or see you later to loved ones We are made for eternal love and unity with both our Creator Savior and also with loved ones The Bible stresses family and lineage often and a common theme understanding of those who have experienced near death experiences NDEs is how very important love is as well as the fact that there will be a reunion in heaven We re created in the image of a living and eternal God that is why our souls long for just that One day God will restore and make all things right What a glorious day that will be
