Basic Mathematics for College Students Alan S. Tussy, Roy David Gustafson, 1999 Designed to teach students how to become analytic thinkers through a variety of instructional approaches that embody the recommendations of NCTM and AMATYC Tussy and Gustafson build the strong mathematical foundation necessary to give students confidence to apply their newly acquired skills at home or on the job In this thorough review of arithmetic and geometry the authors also introduce the fundamental algebraic concepts that students who intend to take an introductory algebra course in the future will need

Basic Math for College Students Alan S. Tussy, 2001-06 Correspondence Courses Offered by Colleges and Universities Through the United States Armed Forces Institute United States Armed Forces Institute, 1954 Resources in Education, 1990-07 Basic College Mathematics: An Applied Approach Richard N. Aufmann, Joanne Lockwood, 2010-01-01 As in previous editions the focus in BASIC COLLEGE MATHEMATICS AN APPLIED APPROACH remains on the Aufmann Interactive Method AIM Students are encouraged to be active participants in the classroom and in their own studies as they work through the How To examples and the paired Examples and You Try It problems The role of active participant is crucial to success Presenting students with worked examples and then providing them with the opportunity to immediately work similar problems helps them build their confidence and eventually master the concepts To this point simplicity plays a key factor in the organization of this edition as in all other editions All lessons exercise sets tests and supplements are organized around a carefully constructed hierarchy of objectives This objective based approach not only serves the needs of students in terms of helping them to clearly organize their thoughts around the content but instructors as well as they work to design syllabi lesson plans and other administrative documents The Ninth Edition features a new design enhancing the Aufmann Interactive Method and the organization of the text around objectives making the pages easier for both students and instructors to follow Important Notice Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version C.
