The Cambridge Handbook for the Anthropology of Gender and Sexuality Cecilia McCallum, Silvia Posocco, Martin Fotta, 2023-10-19 The tense but enduring engagement between anthropology and gender and sexuality studies has had profound effects upon anthropological theory and practice Bringing together contributions from an international team of authors this Handbook shows that anthropological work has taken inspiration from feminist and LGBTQI movements to create a transformative body of research It provides an accessible state of the art overview of the anthropology of gender and sexuality whilst also documenting its historical emergence highlighting the varied impact gender and sexuality studies have had on anthropological theory It is split into five parts with each chapter introducing a contemporary anthropological theory through in depth ethnographical discussion It features intersectional black and indigenous authors providing a forum for established and emerging voices to gesture towards futures of anthropology of gender and sexuality Authoritative and cutting edge it is essential reading for researchers and students in anthropology and will set the agenda for future research in the field

Researching Gender-Based Violence April D.J. Petillo, Heather R. Hlavka, 2022-08-02 An interdisciplinary collection of critical feminist reflections on interpersonal gender violence Despite the growing interest in the subject of gender violence surprisingly little has been written in recent years about the methodology behind this emerging field of research This interdisciplinary collection seeks to fill this gap by empowering scholars to conduct gender violence research in ways that deconstruct rather than reinforce existing power structures and hierarchies The book argues for new approaches to research and activism on gender based violence grounded in the intersectional realities of individuals and communities Each chapter discusses the role of reflective methodologies to recognize institutional and intersectional inequalities challenging the reader to contemplate ethical considerations of an embodied feminist methodology when researching gender based violence By centering these issues for applied scholars practitioners and academic activists the book offers insights about where sociocultural notions of criminality and innocence might align across geographies of gender based violence The volume encourages further thinking about embodied methodological creativity in and for the future of interpersonal gender based violence research A powerful tool for conducting productive scholarship Researching Gender Based Violence provides recommendations for interrogating practicing and collaborating across fields disciplines and lived realities

Intimate Partner Violence and Advocate Response, Melissa Beske, 2016-04-21 Intimate Partner Violence and Advocate Response Redefining Love in Western Belize offers new insight into the cross cultural analysis of gender based intimate partner violence by blending activist anthropology with in depth ethnographic research to evaluate and help ameliorate the crisis in Belize Drawing from twenty months of fieldwork in the Belizean Cayo District conducted between 2002 and 2013 Melissa A Beske investigates the prevalence and complexity of partner abuse the contributing cultural and structural factors and the advocate dynamics across local national and transnational frameworks in combating the problem Combining enlivened narratives comparative viewpoints and scholar activism this book not only illustrates the lived suffering of partner abuse in Cayo but it also engages with the passionate commitment of survivors and supporters as they endeavor to create a more equitable and peaceful community In doing so it demonstrates an effective strategy for the interdisciplinary assessment of gender based abuse which satisfies demands for theoretical impartiality while simultaneously enabling researchers to take an ethical stand in social causes

Gender-Based Violence and Digital Media in South Africa Millie Mayiziveyi Phiri, 2023-10-02 This book presents a new paradigm for attending to gender based violence GBV social media discourse among marginalised Black women in South Africa Focusing on the intersections of television and social media the study charts the morphing and merging of the inside of the soap opera and the outside of the real world amid a rise in feminist social media activism The analysis begins with coverage of gender based violence in a long running South African soap opera and social media discussion of these issues in parallel with real world events and the collective social media response The author offers pertinent insights into audiences in sub Saharan Africa presenting a new feminist trajectory for women and activism in the region Offering new insights into an important issue this book will be of interest to scholars and students of gender cultural studies film studies television studies sociology development studies feminism media and journalism

Feminist Activist Ethnography Christa Craven, Dána-Ain Davis, 2013-04-04 Writing in the wake of neoliberalism where human rights and social justice have increasingly been subordinated to proliferating consumer choices and ideals of market justice contributors to this collection argue that feminist ethnographers are in a key position to reassert the central feminist connections between theory methods and activism Together we suggest avenues for incorporating methodological innovations collaborative analysis and collective activism in our scholarly projects What are the possibilities and challenges that exist for feminist ethnography 25 years after initial debates emerged in this field about reflexivity objectivity reductive individualism and the social relevance of activist scholarship How can feminist ethnography intensify efforts towards social justice in the current political and economic climate This collection continues a crucial dialog about feminist activist ethnography in the 21st century at the intersection of engaged feminist research and activism in the service of the organizations people communities and feminist issues we study

Violence Against Women under European Human Rights Law Elena Brodeală, Ivana Jelić, Silvia Șuteu, 2024-12-09 This timely book analyzes recent developments and key questions related to violence against women under European human rights law including the European Convention of Human Rights the European Social Charter and EU Law instruments It examines supranational standards and their complex interplay with national legal orders and realities

Ending Gender-Based Violence Hannah E. Britton, 2020-04-16 South African women s still increasing presence in local provincial and national institutions has inspired sweeping legislation aimed at advancing women s rights and opportunity Yet the country remains plagued by sexual assault rape and intimate partner violence Hannah E Britton examines the reasons gendered violence persists in relationship to social inequalities even after women assume political power Venturing into South African communities Britton invites service providers religious and traditional leaders police officers and medical professionals to address gender based violence in their own words Britton finds the recent turn toward carceral solutions with a focus on arrests and prosecutions fails to address the complexities of the problem and looks at how changing specific community dynamics can defuse interpersonal violence She also examines how place and space affect the implementation of policy and suggests practical ways policymakers can support street level workers Clear eyed and revealing Ending Gender Based Violence offers needed tools for breaking cycles of brutality and inequality around the world Counseling Women Julia Kowalski, 2022-10-11 Women's rights activists around the world have commonly understood gendered violence as the product of so called traditional family structures from which women must be liberated Counseling Women contends that this perspective overlooks the social and cultural contexts in which women understand and navigate their relationships with kin This book follows frontline workers in India called family counselors as they support women who have experienced violence at home in the context of complex shifting legal and familial systems Drawing on ethnographic research at counseling centers in Jaipur Rajasthan Julia Kowalski shows how an individualistic notion of women's rights places already vulnerable women into even more precarious positions by ignoring the reality of the social relations that shape lives within and beyond the family Thus rather than focusing on attaining independence from kin family counselors in India instead strive to help women cultivate relationships of interdependence in order to reimagine family life in the wake of violence Counselors mobilize the beliefs concepts and frameworks of kinship to offer women interactive strategies to gain agency within the family including multigenerational kin networks encompassing parents in laws and other extended family Through this work kinship becomes a resource through which people imagine and act on new familial futures In viewing this reliance on kinship as part of rather than a deviation from global women's rights projects Counseling Women reassesses Western liberal feminism's notions of what it means to have agency and what constitutes violence and retheorizes the role of interdependence in gendered violence and inequality as not only a site of vulnerability but a potential source of strength

Marital Rape Kersti Yllö, M. Gabriela Torres, 2016-05-09 Rape in marriage is a global problem affecting millions of women it is still legal in many countries and was only criminalized in all U S states in 1993 In much of the world marital rape is too often understood as an oxymoron due to the fact that the ideology of permanent consent underlies the legal and cultural definitions of sex in marriage From Vietnam to Guatemala to South Africa and beyond this volume examines how cultural legal public health and human rights policies and practices impact intimate partner violence While legal and cultural conceptions of marital rape vary widely from criminal assault to wifely duty this volume offers evidence from different societies that forced sex undermines the physical and psychological well being of the women who experience it regardless of their cultural context Globally the nature of marriage is changing and so are notions of individual choice love intimacy and rigid gender roles Marital Rape documents wide ranging and fluid understandings of sex consent and rape in marriage such an array of perspectives demands an international and interdisciplinary approach to the study of sex and gender based violence This text brings together an international group of scholars from the fields of anthropology sociology criminology law public health and human rights their work points to the importance of understanding the lived experience of sexual violence for the design of effective and culturally sensitive public policy and practice
