The Female Performer between Exhibitionism and Feminism in Novels by James, Hawthorne, and Zola

Nodhar Hammami Ben Fradj, 2021-03-11 This book is concerned with the figure of the female performer in nineteenth century fiction It explores the attitudes of Henry James Nathaniel Hawthorne and Emile Zola towards women's appearances on political daises and theatrical stages Literature as a cultural force can either boost women's participation in public life or bolster the patriarchal ideology The book verifies Henry James's feminist ideology that lies behind the positive representation of women's political activism and acting as two different modes of performance through a comparative study between him and two of his contemporary novelists It reflects the clash of opinions among nineteenth century American and French authors on the issue of women's public manifestation as caught between the spectacular and the political While some writers have deemed it an exhibitionist demeanour others have considered it a commitment to the feminist project The first section shows how a feminist reading in the history of European and American female performers as emerging figures in the nineteenth century can help to understand the position of the figure in the literary works of the period Nathaniel Hawthorne is shown to be an author who holds the same feminist temperament as James through his portrayal of a talented political rhetorician in his novel The Blithedale Romance which is compared to James's The Bostonians in the second section The final part conducts a study in contrasts between James's supportive rendering of the actress in The Tragic Muse and Emile Zola's derogatory stereotyping of the female performer as a prostitute in his novel Nana Women in Christ Michele M. Schumacher, 2004 The challenge of promoting the new feminism has barely been addressed since it was first launched by Pope John Paul II in his 1995 encyclical Evangelium vitae The thirteen contributors in this book all outstanding international scholars take up this task together laying the necessary theoretical foundation for the new feminism These chapters articulate an integral philosophical and theological understanding of persons that moves beyond patriarchy on the one hand and traditional feminism on the other Central to the new perspective offered here is the biblical revelation of the human person man and woman in Christ a vision that directs women beyond the male standard against which they have too often been measured Far from constraining women to an eternal essence the dynamic view presented here encourages each woman to realize herself in perfect Christian freedom Gandhi, Women, and the National Movement, 1920-47 Anup Taneja, 2005 This Book Critically Analyses The Success Achieved By Gandhi In Mobilizing Women On A Mass Scale For The Cause Of The Country's Independence Between Women and Generations Drucilla Cornell, 2016-04-30 This book defies easy categorization but will be one of the most original thoughtful and genuinely interesting books published next year Before the author's mother died she asked her daughter Drucilla to write a book that would bear witness to the dignity of her death and one that her bridge class would be able to understand As if that wasn't difficult enough Drucilla's mother who had a degenerative disease decided to end her life by ingesting a lethal cocktail of drugs Drucilla was in the unenviable position of bearing witness to her mother's act Unsentimental yet poignant candid and courageous this is the book that Drucilla promised her mother she'd write Unlike her earlier academically oriented books Between Women and Generations is an intensely personal narrative which interweaves the personal and political decisions Drucilla's made throughout her life She uses the personal as a springboard to talk about larger philosophical issues such as how one achieves dignity in life and in death and the nature of intergenerational relationships between women Drucilla speaks candidly of her relationship with her mother about her decision to adopt a non Western child and about her commitment to UNITY a cooperative of house cleaners in Long Island New York This book will resonate strongly with Western women Human Sexuality Vern L. Bullough, Bonnie Bullough, 2014-01-14 First Published in 1994 The purpose of an encyclopedia is to gather in one place information that otherwise would be difficult to find Bring together a collection of articles that are authoritative and reflect a variety of viewpoints The contributors come from a wide range of disciplines from nursing to medicine from biology to history and include sociologists psychologists anthropologists political scientists literary specialists academics and non academics clinicians and teachers researchers and generalists Modernist Literary Collaborations Between Women and Men Russell McDonald, 2022-10-27 This book examines literary collaborations between women and men revealing how deeply imbued and valuable gender conflict was in modernism Sir Courtly Nice: or, It cannot be. A comedy, etc. Based on "No puede ser" of A. Moreto y Cabaña Mr. Crown (John), 1693 The Industrial Employment of Women: Being a Comparison Between the Condition of the People in the Watch Trade in Coventry, in which Women are Not Employed, and the People in the Ribbon Trade, in which They are Employed, Etc Charles Bray, 1857 Hinz: Customary Law Ascertained Volume 1 Manfred Hinz, Ndateelela Namwoonde, 2024-01-23 Customary Law Ascertained Volume 1 is the first of a three volume series in which traditional authorities in Namibia present the customary laws of their communities It contains the laws of the Owambo Kavango and Caprivi communities Volume 2 contains the customary laws of the Bakgalagari the Batswana ba Namibia and the Damara communities Volume 3 contains the customary laws of the Nama Ovaherero Ovambanderu and San communities Recognised traditional authorities in Namibia are expected to ascertain the customary law applicable in their respective communities after consultation with the members of that community and to note the most important aspect of such law in written form This series is the result of that process It has been facilitated by the Human Rights and Documentation Centre of the University of Namibia through the former Dean of the Law Faculty Professor Manfred Hinz
