Management Ethics
 Stewart R. Clegg, Carl Rhodes, 2012-11-12 Ethics has become big business but have businesses become ethical This is a central question for today's managers Managing ethics is critical in an era characterized by unprecedented corporate power and a myriad of competing ethical traditions Giving new insights into the understanding of ethics for today's organization practice and managerial behaviour this timely volume edited by well respected industry authorities provides an overview and critique of ethics as they relate to contemporary challenges and issues such as globalization sustainability consumerism neo liberalism corporate collapses leadership and corporate regulation This book an essential read for postgraduate students of business and ethics is organized around the core question What are the ethics of organizing in today's institutional environment and what does this mean for the practice of management and the organization of business In response to this the contributors examine ethics as it is deeply embedded in the everyday practice of management Interdisciplinary contributions from the fields of sociology philosophy management organization studies and public administration provide unique perspectives while case studies and real life examples illustrate the challenges and dilemmas faced in practice Each chapter has a brief overview and editor's introduction which skilfully summarizes key points and draws connections between the chapters

The Training Evaluation Process David J. Basarab Sr., Darrell K. Root, 2012-12-06 This book details a unique training evaluation approach developed by David J Basarab Sr currently the Manager of Evaluation at Motorola University This approach was developed in part based on information from his graduate coursework with Dr Darrell K Root professor of program evaluation and educational administration at the University of Dayton It enabled Motorola to evaluate their corporate training programs to determine whether money spent on training was an investment or an expense This evaluation approach is also significant in determining either the effectiveness of or the opportunities to improve corporate training programs In this text The Training Evaluation Process David Basarab and Darrell Root provide commercial industry training with a step by step approach to use when evaluating training programs thus allowing training to be viewed as an investment rather than an expense This text focuses on assessing training programs so that they may be improved This approach provides a successful procedure to use when evaluating training programs Included in the text is a comprehensive explanation of the evaluation model developed by D L Kirkpatrick Kirkpatrick D L November 1959 in which he described four levels of evaluating training programs Level 1 Reaction Evaluate to learn participants perception to the training program Level 2 Learning Evaluate to determine whether participants have learned the course subject matter Level 3 Behavior Evaluate participants use of newly acquired job skills on the job Level 4 Results Evaluate the organizational impact of training on company's workforce
