Beyond The Fringe Screen And Cinema:

Beyond the Fringe ... and Beyond Ronald Bergan, 1989 On 22 August 1960 four university graduates put on a little amateur revue for the Edinburgh Festival and between them changed the face of British comedy for ever They were Peter Cook Dudley Moore Alan Bennett and Jonathan Miller Ronald Bergan's four part biography focuses a critical eye on the strangely assorted foursome Notes from Beyond the Fringe Greg Stott, 2009-04 No one ever accused Greg Stott of not having a sense of humor His retelling of experiences often left his readers begging for more and now there is an entire book dedicated to the events that comprise life as he knows it Notes from Beyond the Fringe is a unique and entertaining collection of stories based on one man's view of the world around him With a distinct and engaging voice Stott relates his life through vignettes that while seemingly ordinary in nature either wind up impacting him or are subsequently addressed by him in a manner that is anything but ordinary His subjects encompass a wide variety of topics familiar to just about everybody but are liberally skewed in the retelling by influences that began with growing up in a pre tofu California in the 1950's were adjusted as a result of teen life endured in a boarding school befogged by a misspent youth and eventually warped from the effects of being a single parent Very little escapes Stott's attention and subsequent adjustments to his concept of reality Whether describing how to deliver 400 newspapers at speed in a 1965 Volkswagen explaining difficult situations to his pre pubescent tax deduction the acquisition of proper Texas BBQ etiquette or relating his seemingly endless failures in dealing with animals offspring relationships hot rods and amateur carpentry the stories are both original and told with a perspective that can only come about as the result severe mental instability Be prepared to spend hours attempting to understand how anyone could have survived so long in an uncontrolled environment and enjoying the humor that is more often than not related at the author's expense in Notes from Beyond the Fringe Your perspective on the world will never be the same The Second Century of Cinema Wheeler W. Dixon, 2000-02-28 Contemplates the future of cinema in light of emerging digital technologies and new systems of distribution Cinema Houston David Welling, 2010-06-30 Cinema Houston celebrates a vibrant century of movie theatres and moviegoing in Texas's largest city Illustrated with more than two hundred historical photographs newspaper clippings and advertisements it traces the history of Houston movie theatres from their early twentieth century beginnings in vaudeville and nickelodeon houses to the opulent downtown theatres built in the 1920s the Majestic Metropolitan Kirby and Loew's State It also captures the excitement of the neighborhood theatres of the 1930s and 1940s including the Alabama Tower and River Oaks the theatres of the 1950s and early 1960s including the Windsor and its Cinerama roadshows and the multicinemas and megaplexes that have come to dominate the movie scene since the late 1960s While preserving the glories of Houston's lost movie palaces only a few of these historic theatres still survive Cinema Houston also vividly re-creates the moviegoing experience chronicling midnight movie madness summer nights at the drive in and of course all those tasty snacks at the concession stand Sure to appeal to a wide audience from movie fans to devotees of Houston's architectural history Cinema Houston captures the bygone era of the city's movie houses from the lowbrow to the sublime the hi tech sound of 70mm Dolby and THX to the crackle of a drive in speaker on a cool spring evening

War Representation in British Cinema and Television Kevin M. Flanagan, 2019-10-25 This book explores alternatives to realist triumphalist and heroic representations of war in British film and television Focusing on the period between the Suez Crisis of 1956 and the Falkland War but offering connections to the moment of Brexit it argues that the lost continent of existential satirical simulated and abstractly traumatic war stories is as central to understanding Britain's martial history as the mainstream inheritance The book features case studies that stress the contribution of exiled or expatriate directors and outsider sensibilities with particular emphasis on Peter Watkins Joseph Losey and Richard Lester At the same time it demonstrates concerns and stylistic emphases that continue to the present in television series and films by directors such as Lone Scherfig and Christopher Nolan Encompassing everything from features to government information films the book explores related trends in the British film industry popular culture and film criticism while offering a sense of how these contexts contribute to historical memory
