Hope Tia DeNora,2021-04-21 This book provides a concise interdisciplinary perspective on the emotion and practice of hope Based on the idea that hope is a dream that we carry in different ways the five chapters draw on the author s original research and align it with literature on the sociology of culture and emotion to explore the concept in relation to cultural and community practices and mental health The climate crisis violence hostility pandemics homelessness displacement conflict slavery economic hardship and economic downturn loneliness anxiety mental illness are intensifying There is a need for hope There is also a need to confront hope what is hope and what can and cannot be achieved by hoping This confrontation includes distinguishing hope from wishful thinking and blind optimism Using examples from different spheres of social life including health religion music therapy migration and social displacement the book sets the idea of hope in context of situations of uncertainty challenge and pain and goes on to highlight the practical application of these ideas and outline an agenda for further research on hope Turning High-Poverty Schools into High-Performing Schools William H.
 Parrett,Kathleen M. Budge,2020-04-28 Schools across the United States and Canada are disrupting the adverse effects of poverty and supporting students in ways that enable them to succeed in school and in life In this second edition Parrett and Budge show you how your school can achieve similar results Expanding on their original framework s still critical concepts of actions and school culture they incorporate new insights for addressing equity trauma and social emotional learning These fresh perspectives combine with lessons learned from 12 additional high poverty high performing schools to form the updated and enhanced Framework for Collective Action Emphasizing students social emotional and academic learning as the hub for all action in high performing high poverty schools the authors describe how educators can work within the expanded Framework to address the needs of all students but particularly those who live in poverty Equipped with the Framework and a plethora of tools to build collective efficacy self assessments high leverage questions action advice and more school and district leaders as well as teachers teacher leaders instructional coaches and other staff can close persistent opportunity gaps and reverse longstanding patterns of low achievement

Restorative Justice and Practice in US Education Kenneth R. Roth, Felix Kumah-Abiwu, Zachary S. Ritter, 2024-11-29 This edited volume offers a comprehensive overview of the dual concepts of Restorative Justice as a legal remedy and Restorative Practice as a philosophy to reduce harm and build resilient and just communities within social cultural and educational institutions With contributions from leading practitioners and scholars the book serves as a valuable resource for institutions seeking to center equity and reduce harm in multicultural learning spaces Chapters combine insights into the origins and intent of Restorative Justice and Practice showcase some of their early applications in higher education settings and beyond and highlight their potential for promoting peace and building community on campuses across the country

The 5 Dimensions of Engaged Teaching Laura Weaver, Mark Wilding, 2013-05-07 Engaged teaching recognizes that educators need to offer more than lesson plans and assessments for students to thrive in the 21st century Equip your students to be resilient individuals able to communicate effectively and work with diverse people The authors contend that students must develop their emotional and social skills as thoroughly as their academic skills and that teachers must cultivate this growth

Uplifting Leadership Andy Hargreaves, Alan Boyle, Alma Harris, 2014-06-23 What does it take to do more with less How can you do better than before or better than others How do you turn losses into wins or near bankruptcy into strong profitability or abject failure into stellar success The power of uplift enables any organization to do more with less beat the competition and perform better than ever Leaders who uplift their employees passions intellects and commitments produce remarkable results Based on original research from a seven year global study Uplifting Leadership reveals how leaders from diverse organizations inspired and uplifted their teams performance Distilling the six common characteristics of leaders at high performing organizations across business sports and education authors Andy Hargreaves Alan Boyle and Alma Harris explore the nature of uplift its impact on performance and the ways to achieve it within and beyond an organization s walls revealing how leaders Identify and articulate an inspiring dream that is coherently connected to the best of what the organization has been before Pursue that dream at a sustainable pace without squandering resources incurring excessive debt or burning people out Forge paths of innovation and improvement that others have overlooked or rejected Monitor progress by using metrics and indicators in a mindful and meaningful way Build teams that naturally pull people into change rather than pushing them through it
