The Economy of the Covenants, Between God and Man Herman Witsius, 1804 Between God and Man Pope Innocent III, 2004-03 When Innocent III became Pope in 1198 he announced that he had been elevated to a position between God and man The sermons presented in this collection cast clearer light on Innocent's concept of what his duties were as priest and bishop Page 4 of cover Happiness, God, and Man Christoph Schšnborn, 2010-01-01 All human beings want to be happy The longing for happiness does not have to be learned it is innate And it can hardly be unlearned for we never simply acquiesce in unhappiness Christian faith the Christian way of life and the imitation of Christ are understood to be signposts pointing the way to happiness Upon this depends their credibility and their attractiveness Cardinal Schonborn talks about man's happiness small and great about happiness as it is supposed to be and as it is discovered He explains what it means to say that all human beings are created for happiness His writings are centered on meditations about happiness and about love and friendship as well Yet the Archbishop of Vienna also discusses the essential questions of faith including reflections on the Name of God as seen in Scripture on dealing with the tragedies of modern times on consolation for the sorrowful and on the spiritual roots of western civilization In addition he discusses the importance of literature and how it addresses the deeper questions about life as demonstrated in his literary discussions of the works of C S Lewis Gertrud von Le Fort and William Shakespeare He shows how their works give witness to a happiness that overcomes all darkness through suffering trials and especially forgiveness Between Israel and God Jacob Neusner, 2000 The Halakhah embodies the complete Jewish Law and contains commandments and guidelines for day to day living The original commandments given by God to the Jewish people were enhanced by rabbis to offer a detailed framework to guide the lives of all Jews In this complete all encompassing encyclopaedia of the Halakhah the various laws are classified in such a way that a systematic and coherent structure is obtained Each entry of the Halakhah is presented in a logical fashion Where applicable the original biblical wording is given extended with literal abstracts from the Torah Next problems and questions that may arise from that law are stated and any additional information given Finally each entry gives comprehensive explanations and recommendations as to how these laws are to be observed in daily life where to be and where not to be what to do and what not to do what to say and what not to say The Halakhah or standard Jewish Law combines the Mishnah about 200 CE the Tosefta about 300 CE and the two Talmuds about 400 600 CE for the Land of Israel and Babylon respectively Volumes I and II contain entries pertaining to the Jewish people in relationship to God Volume III explains how the Jewish people can restore and maintain their society in accordance with the Torah as it is explained by the rabbis In Volumes IV and V of this study we take up the life of the Jewish household in their encounter with God The Encyclopaedic account therefore moves from regulating relationships between Israel and God to establishing stable and equitable relationships among Israelites and finally to actually living the Halakhah What and Where is God?
