Between Heaven and Hell Peter Kreeft, 2008-06-16 On November 22 1963 three great men died within a few hours of each other C S Lewis John F Kennedy and Aldous Huxley All three believed in different ways that death is not the end of human life Suppose they were right and suppose they met after death How might the conversation go Peter Kreeft imagines their discussion as a part of The Great Conversation that has been going on for centuries Does human life have meaning Is it possible to know about life after death What if one could prove that Jesus was God With Kennedy taking the role of a modern humanist Lewis representing Christian theism and Huxley advocating Eastern pantheism the dialogue is lively and informative This new edition of this classic work includes a postscript in which Kreeft describes why and how he wrote what has remained a standard of apologetic literature for a generation He also adds an outline and index to the book as well as a never before published dialog in which he imagines A World Without an Easter Now more than ever this book offers an animated interaction that involves not only good thinking but good drama
