The Diamond Sutra Red Pine, 2009-03-01 A masterful translation of the Diamond Sutra an essential Zen Buddhist scripture with insightful commentary and helpful historical context Zen Buddhism is often said to be a practice of mind to mind transmission without reliance on texts in fact some great teachers forbid their students to read or write But Buddhism has also inspired some of the greatest philosophical writings of any religion and two such works lie at the center of Zen The Heart Sutra which monks recite all over the world and The Diamond Sutra said to contain answers to all questions of delusion and dualism This is the Buddhist teaching on the perfection of wisdom and cuts through all obstacles on the path of practice As Red Pine explains The Diamond Sutra may look like a book but it's really the body of the Buddha It's also your body my body all possible bodies But it's a body with nothing inside and nothing outside It doesn't exist in space or time Nor is it a construct of the mind It's no mind And yet because it's no mind it has room for compassion This book is the offering of no mind born of compassion for all suffering beings Of all the sutras that teach this teaching this is the diamond Prajñāparāmitā': *Buddhist Wisdom Books, Containing The Diamond Sutra and The Heart Sutra ,1970
