Building Security In Europe's New Borderlands:

Building Security in Europe's New Borderlands Renata Dwan, 2016-07-08 While European integration advances many of the countries along Europe's eastern and southern periphery have fallen prey to chronic conflict punctuated by a series of small wars Exacerbating the situation has been the lack of effective organizational means for mediating local conflicts facilitating regional development and structuring cooperation with larger regional and international institutions What are the prospects for enhancing security in the most volatile subregions of post communist Europe This text examines the external and internal factors that impede or foster subregional cooperation in South Eastern and East Central Europe and the Caucasus It includes chapters situating these borderlands in the context of a wider Europe with an evolving security architecture

Building Security in Europe's New Borderlands Renata Dwan, 1999 Building Security in Europe's New Borderlands Renata Dwan, 1999 What are the prospects for enhancing security in the most volatile subregions of post communist Europe This text examines the external and internal factors that impede or foster subregional cooperation in South Eastern and East Central Europe and the Caucasus

Building Security in the New States of Eurasia: Subregional Cooperation in the Former Soviet Space Renata Dwan, Oleksandr Pavliuk, 2015-07-17 This pathbreaking study brings together international experts to consider security issues and the experience and potential for cooperation in the subregions of the former Soviet Union Appendices to the volume provide maps a guide to acronyms profiles of existing subregional organizations and a chronology of cooperative agreements signed in the region since 1991

The Black Sea Region Oleksandr Pavliuk, Ivanna Klympush-Tsintsadze, 2016-07-08 The ring of countries bordering the Black Sea make up one of the unstable subregions of former Soviet republics satellites and neighbours This volume analyses the security issues in the Black Sea region and the development of mechanisms that would promote cooperation and conflict management

Ukraine's Foreign and Security Policy 1991-2000 Roman Wolczuk, 2002-10-17 This book analyses Ukraine's relations with each of its neighbours in its first decade of independence It examines the degree to which these relations fitted into Ukraine's broad objective of reorienting its key political ties from East to West and assesses the extent to which Ukraine succeeded in achieving this reorientation It shows how in the early days of independence Ukraine fought off threats from Russia and Romania to its territorial integrity and how it made progress in establishing good relations with its western neighbours as a means of moving closer toward Central European sub regional and European regional organisations It also shows how the sheer breadth and depth of its economic and military ties to Russia dwarfed Ukraine's relations with all other neighbours resulting in a foreign and security policy which attempted to counterbalance the competing forces of East and West

Comparative Regionalism Fred H. Lawson, 2017-03-02 Regionalism has regained momentum in the post Cold War era New economic groupings continue to spring up across the globe while older regional organizations have strengthened their institutional bases and broadened their scope Explaining the reinvigoration of regionalism requires comparative analyses that not only highlight the commonalities that characterize various regional experiments but also account for the differential outcomes and divergent trajectories such projects exhibit This collection of seminal articles on regionalism advances theoretical concepts that can stimulate useful comparisons along with scholarly surveys of important instances of regionalism in the contemporary world Besides classic studies of the European Union the volume includes authoritative overviews and case studies of regionalist projects in East Asia Sub Saharan Africa Latin America the Middle East and Central Eurasia An introductory essay situates these articles in the context of the five decade long research program on regional integration theory Is Southeastern Europe Doomed to Instability? Dimitri A. Sotiropoulos,Thanos

Veremis,2013-10-11 Considering the enormous problems of the Balkans during the 1990s the experts who contributed to this study believe that there are solutions to the seemingly intractable situation and the legacy of the disintegration of the former Soviet Union Perspectives on the Enlargement of the European Union Cameron Ross,2021-09-06 In a historic decision at its Copenhagen Conference in June 1993 the European Union gave the green light to an eastward expansion Initially invitations to join the EU went out to just six countries of the former Soviet bloc Poland Hungary the Czech and Slovak republics Romania and Bulgaria However it was not long before there was a queue of other applicants from Eastern Europe pressing at the EU s gates There were real fears in some quarters that the economic reforms demanded for entry into the EU would bring about more shock than therapy in Eastern Europe and that a rapid move to the market would undermine support for democracy This volume of essays by a group of internationally recognised experts focuses on the eastward expansion of the European Union and the EU s relations with the applicant states The primary aim of the volume is to provide a historical and analytical account of the enlargement process and to provide readers with a scholarly road map to guide them through the intricacies of the rapidly changing enlargement terrain After region wide studies of the enlargement process there are case studies of eight countries Bulgaria Romania the Czech Republic Slovakia Croatia Serbia Poland and Estonia

Constructing South East Europe Dimitar Bechev,2011-03-15 Regional cooperation has become a distinctive feature of the Balkans an area known for its turbulent politics Exploring the origins and dynamics of this change this book highlights the transformative power of the EU and other international actors
