The Multifaith Movement: Global Risks and Cosmopolitan Solutions Anna Halafoff, 2012-10-29 This book documents the ultramodern rise of the multifaith movement as multifaith initiatives have been increasingly deployed as cosmopolitan solutions to counter global risks such as terrorism and climate change at the turn of the 21st century These projects aim to enhance common security particularly in Western societies following the events of September 11 2001 and the July 2005 London bombings where multifaith engagement has been promoted as a strategy to counter violent extremism The author draws on interviews with 56 leading figures in the field of multifaith relations including Paul Knitter Eboo Patel Marcus Braybrooke Katherine Marshall John Voll and Krista Tippett Identifying the principle aims of the multifaith movement the analysis explores the benefits and challenges of multifaith engagement as well as the effectiveness of multifaith initiatives in countering the process of radicalization Building on notions of cosmopolitanism the work proposes a new theoretical framework termed Netpeace which recognizes the interconnectedness of global problems and their solutions In doing so it acknowledges the capacity of multi actor peacebuilding networks including religious and state actors to address the pressing dilemmas of our times The primary intention of the book is to assist in the formation of new models of activism and governance founded on a politics of understanding modeled by the multifaith movement Muslim Volunteering in the West Mario Peucker, Merve Reyhan Kayikci, 2019-10-04 This edited volume explores various facets of Muslims' civic engagement in Western post secular societies fundamentally challenging simplistic boundaries between Islamic ethical conduct and liberal democratic norms and practice. Bringing together scholars from sociology, anthropology and Islamic theology, the collection offers sound theoretical and empirical elaborations on the complex ways in which Islamic piety principles and norms interact with and shape Muslims' everyday practice of volunteering as a performance of active citizenship in liberal societies. The contributions cover diverse manifestations of Muslim volunteering in North America, Europe and Australia, from environmentalism to mental health volunteering and critically examine the national and global socio-political context within which certain forms of Muslims' civic engagement are viewed with skepticism and suspicion. It will be of use to students and scholars across sociology, political science, community studies and Islamic studies with a focus on migrant integration, diaspora studies and inter-ethnic relations Encounters for Change

Dagmar Grefe, 2011-11-14 Weaving together insights from social psychology, theology and experiences of interfaith religious leaders, Dagmar Grefe develops practical strategies that support interreligious contact at a grassroots level. She shows that by working together, religious communities can more effectively address global and local problems that all people face: poverty, environmental destruction and armed conflict. Grefe describes interreligious cooperation at work in local communities. She develops tools that equip religious leaders with the interreligious competence needed for spiritual care and counseling with individual persons in crisis. Cooperation is not only effective in the care for communities and persons in crisis; it also heals distant and strained interreligious relationships. In the process of working together, perceptions of each other can transform Progressive & Religious

Robert P. Jones, 2008-07-25 Progressive Religious tells the dynamic stories of Jewish, Christian, Muslim and Buddhist leaders who are building on traditional connections between religion and social justice and working on a spectrum of issues including health care, immigration, civil rights, poverty, and more A Muslim Sage Among Peers

John D. Barton, 2017-10-01 This volume puts Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet movement in dialogue with Christian theologians, philosophers and organizations concerning areas of shared interest. The Christian voices represented in these constructed dialogues are diverse, contemporary and historical. Catholic and Protestant theological and pragmatic. While all of the essays explore overlaps and similarities between Gulen and these dialogue partners, they also bring to the surface differences and critical assessments. The result is a multi-faceted conversation that invites us all into deeper levels of historical and theological imagination, self-reflection and collaborative service Youth Ministry in a Multifaith Society

Len Kageler, 2014-04-24 How do we ground our young people in the faith while encouraging their relationships with friends of other faiths? Veteran youth minister and researcher Len Kageler digs into the data surrounding this exciting multifaith era and offers surprising confidence that our kids can be guided into mature Christian faith while simultaneously learning to love their neighbors of other religions The Faiths of Others

of interreligious dialogue a relatively new and significant dimension of human religiosity In recent decades organizations committed to interreligious or interfaith dialogue have proliferated both in the Western and non Western worlds Why How so And what exactly is interreligious dialogue These are the touchstone questions of this book the first major history of interreligious dialogue in the modern age Thomas Albert Howard narrates and analyzes several key turning points in the history of interfaith dialogue before examining in the conclusion the contemporary landscape While many have theorized about and practiced interreligious dialogue few have attended carefully to its past connecting its emergence and spread with broader developments in modern history Interreligious dialogue grasped in light of careful critical attention to its past holds promise for helping people of diverse faith backgrounds to foster cooperation and knowledge of one another while contributing insight into contemporary global religious pluralism

Acts of Faith Eboo Patel, 2020-09-15 With a new afterword Acts of Faith is a remarkable account of growing up Muslim in America and coming to believe in religious pluralism from one of the most prominent faith leaders in the United States Eboo Patel s story is a hopeful and moving testament to the power and passion of young people and of the world changing potential of an interfaith youth movement
