Food Safety and Technology Governance Kuei-Jung Ni, Ching-Fu Lin, 2022-08-31 Recent advances in agri food technology have brought increasing complexity and emerging challenges to food safety regulation and governance with many countries greatly divided in their regulatory approaches As more advanced CRISPR based gene editing technologies and novel foods such as cloned animal products non traditional plants nanofood and plant based meat are rapidly being developed debates arise as to whether the existing models of governance require revision to ensure consumer safety Of equal importance is the extensive use of pesticides additives and animal drugs which raise concerns over the methods and approaches of government approval and phasing out of potentially risk causing chemicals Heightened public criticism of food safety and technology poses a significant challenge to governments around the world which struggle to strike a proper balance between technocracy and democracy oriented risk governance models Drawing on expertise from the United States European Union Japan China Korea Association of South East Asian Nations Malaysia and Taiwan this book explores existing and emerging issues of food law and policy in the context of technology governance to offer an overarching framework for the interaction between food regulation and technology It will be essential reading for academics students and practitioners with an interest in food law and policy agricultural law and policy and food safety and nutrition studies

Vital Healing Marc S. Micozzi, Donald McCown, Mones Abu-Asab, 2013-02-15 Dr Marc S Micozzi unfolds the compelling idea that vital energy prana in the Indian practice of Ayurveda is the unifying concept that underpins all of the traditional medicines of Middle Asia He also draws parallels to mainstream Western medicine and demonstrates how these therapies fit within the context of their own cultures and ours

Medicine - Religion - Spirituality Dorothea Lüddeckens, Monika Schrimpf, 2018-11-08 In modern societies the functional differentiation of medicine and religion is the predominant paradigm Contemporary therapeutic practices and concepts in healing systems such as Transpersonal Psychology Ayurveda as well as Buddhist and Anthroposophic medicine however are shaped by medical as well as religious or spiritual elements This book investigates configurations of the entanglement between medicine religion and spirituality in Europe Asia North America and Africa How do political and legal conditions affect these healing systems How do they relate to religious and scientific discourses How do therapeutic practitioners position themselves between medicine and religion and what is their appeal for patients

Progress and pathology Sally Shuttleworth, Melissa Dickson, Emilie Taylor-Brown, 2020-01-31 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This collaborative volume explores changing perceptions of health and disease in the context of the burgeoning global modernities of the nineteenth century With case studies from Britain America France Germany Finland Bengal China and the South Pacific it demonstrates how popular and medical understandings of the mind and body were reframed by the social cultural and political structures of modern life Essays within the collection examine ways in which cancer suicide and social degeneration were seen as products of the stresses and strains of new ways of living Others explore the legal institutional and intellectual changes that contributed to modern medical practice The volume traces ways that physiological and psychological problems were being constituted in relation to each other and to their social contexts and offers new ways of contextualising the problems of modernity facing us in the twenty first century
