Beyond Limitations Keys For United Nations:

Key Resolutions of the United Nations General Assembly 1946-1996 Dietrich Rauschnig, Katja Wiesbrock, Martin Lailach, 1997-08-28 Key resolutions from the first fifty years of the United Nations General Assembly Beyond UN Subcontracting Thomas G. Weiss, 2016-07-27 Beyond UN Subcontracting sheds light through a series of post Cold War case studies on whether one United Nations efforts both to devolve responsibility for security to regional institutions and the delivery of some of their services to international nongovernmental organisations are a step toward or away from better global governance The cases are designed to explore patterns of interaction and to provide lessons for the future Global Migration Beyond Limits Franklin Obeng-Odoom, 2022 Global Migration beyond Limits provides a critique of mainstream economic accounts of migration environment and inequality Obeng Odoom argues that migration is an expression of an unequal political economic system rather than principally driven by regional and environmental factors Key Materials in International Environmental Law Alix Gowlan-Gualtieri, 2017-09-08 This compilation of key materials in international environmental law takes account of the most significant developments in the field that have occurred during the past decade including in the areas of climate change chemicals and pesticides biosafety and nuclear safety as well as good governance compliance and liability Not only does multilateral environmental law making have wide ranging repercussions on the way national development policies are drafted and business is conducted but also environmental issues increasingly interweave with those relating to human rights trade agriculture and intellectual property making familiarity with the key instruments in international law essential for all working in these areas The book comprises a representative selection of the most important studies in international environmental law with an editorial introduction to each topic Its focus on recent trends and cross sectoral aspects makes it an indispensable tool for students researchers practitioners and policy makers in international environmental law and related fields Beyond Boundaries in the Middle East Brian Finlay, 2011 This is a print on demand edition of a hard to find publication Proposes an innovative whole of society approach to bridging the security develop divide in the Middle East that would leverage donor invest in both security assistance and develop assistance so as to ensure recipient state buy in and an enduring return on investment U N Security Council Resolution 1540 is one tool that could be used to this end Using 1540 governments of the region could for instance identify novel streams of assistance to address capacity shortfalls in pursuit of safe nuclear power generation Such a strategy would accelerate energy diversification options and respond to the enduring challenge of water scarcity while solidifying their participation as responsible members of the global non proliferation community Global Citizenship Education: A Critical Introduction to Key Concepts and Debates Edda Sant, Ian Davies, Karen Pashby, Lynette Shultz, 2018-02-22 Global Citizenship Education explores key ideas and issues within local national and global dimensions Including examples and case studies from across the world the authors draw on ideas experiences and histories within and beyond the West to contribute to multifaceted perspectives on global citizenship education In concise chapters the authors set out the key concepts and debates within the field Global citizenship education is contextualized within key educational frameworks including citizenship education global education development education and peace education Edda Sant Ian Davies Karen Pashby and Lynette Shultz explore the different ways in which global citizenship can be taught learned and assessed in formal and informal contexts Including examples from a wide range of education institutions chapters provide overviews of policy making and international practices borne out of different approaches to global citizenship education With each chapter including a summary of key issues an annotated list of key resources an exercise for students and a further reading list Global Citizenship Education will aid understanding of this complex and debated area of study

The United Nations & Regional Security Michael Charles Pugh, Waheguru Pal Singh Sidhu, 2003 Events in Europe over the past decade or so have created a dynamic requiring conceptual and practical adjustments on the part of the UN and a range of regional actors This volume explores the resulting collaborative relationships in the context of peace operations in the Balkans

Moving Beyond Boundaries in Disability Studies Michele Moore, 2013-09-13 What challenges are posed by changing transnational trends agendas and movements that affect disabled people's lives and what can disabled people their representative organisations and their governments do to advance the agenda for self determination and inclusion This book draws together the writing of academics and activists to depict the experience and perspective of disabled people in relation to a range of contemporary social changes with a focus firmly on ways in which disabled people and their allies can act to counter disabling policies and practices Throughout the book there is an emphasis on disabled people's own voices and activism as the critical driver of theoretical critique and practical change Chapters address a wide range of cultural institutional and personal arenas to explore and contest the boundaries that disabled people seek to move beyond from cross border labour movements in Korea to experience of day services in England from continuing and long lasting realities of wars in Lebanon Cambodia and Somalia to the beauty of harmony in Navajo traditions for understanding disability from collective activism to individual participation in the Olympics This book is recommended reading for students researchers and activists interested in Disability Studies and is directly relevant to policy makers and practitioners in a position to reshape rights spaces and innovations in response to the priorities disabled people feel and articulate are important for their lives It was originally published as a special issue of Disability Society

Exhibitions Beyond Boundaries Harriet Atkinson, Verity Clarkson, Sarah A. Lichtman, 2022-12-01 After World War II museum and gallery exhibitions industrial and trade fairs biennials triennials festivals and world's fairs increasingly came to be used as locations for the exercise of soft power for displays of cultural diplomacy between nations and as spaces for addressing areas of social and political contestation Exhibitions Beyond Boundaries opens with a substantial introduction to the key debates followed by case studies that advance the field of exhibition histories both geographically and methodologically focusing on postwar transnational exchange and the wider networks engendered through exhibitions

Chapters trace relations across Africa Asia Europe the Middle East the Pacific and the United States of America drawing on a range of approaches and perspectives principally from art and design history but also from social economic and political history and museum studies Featured case studies include the presentation of African American Art at FESMAN 66 and FESTAC 77 the US s 1961 Small Industries Exhibition in Colombo Israel s early appearances at the Venice Biennale the Vatican Pavilion at the 1964 1965 New York World s Fair and Hong Kong s Pavilion at Expo 70 in Tokyo United Nations Reform United States.
