Politics of Religious Freedom Winnifred Fallers, Elizabeth Shakman Hurd, Saba Mahmood, Peter G. Danchin, 2015-07-22 In a remarkably short period of time the realization of religious freedom has achieved broad consensus as an indispensable condition for peace Faced with widespread reports of religious persecution public and private actors around the world have responded with laws and policies designed to promote freedom of religion But what precisely is being promoted What are the cultural and epistemological assumptions underlying this response and what forms of politics are enabled in the process The fruits of the three year Politics of Religious Freedom research project the contributions to this volume unsettle the assumption ubiquitous in policy circles that religious freedom is a singular achievement an easily understood state of affairs and that the problem lies in its incomplete accomplishment Taking a global perspective the more than two dozen contributors delineate the different conceptions of religious freedom predominant in the world today as well as their histories and social and political contexts Together the contributions make clear that the reasons for persecution are more varied and complex than is widely acknowledged and that the indiscriminate promotion of a single legal and cultural tool meant to address conflict across a wide variety of cultures can have the perverse effect of exacerbating the problems that plague the communities cited as falling short

At Home and Abroad Elizabeth Shakman Hurd, Winnifred Fallers Sullivan, 2021-03-02 From right to left notions of religion and religious freedom are fundamental to how many Americans have understood their country and themselves Ideas of religion politics and the interplay between them are no less crucial to how the United States has engaged with the world beyond its borders Yet scholarship on American religion tends to bracket the domestic and foreign despite the fact that assumptions about the differences between ourselves and others deeply shape American religious categories and identities At Home and Abroad bridges the divide in the study of American religion law and politics between domestic and international bringing together diverse and distinguished authors from religious studies law American studies sociology history and political science to explore interrelations across conceptual and political boundaries They bring into sharp focus the ideas people and institutions that provide links between domestic and foreign religious politics and policies Contributors break down the categories of domestic and foreign and inquire into how these taxonomies are related to other axes of discrimination asking questions such as What and who counts as home or abroad how and by whom are these determinations made and with what consequences Offering a new approach to theorizing the politics of religion in the context of the American nation state At Home and Abroad also interrogates American religious exceptionalism and illuminates imperial dynamics beyond the United States

Fundamentalism or Tradition Aristotle Papanikolaou, George E. Demacopoulos, 2019-11-05

Traditional secular and fundamentalist all three categories are contested yet in their contestation they shape our sensibilities and are mutually implicated the one with the others This interplay brings to the foreground more than ever the question of what it means to think and live as Tradition The Orthodox theologians of the twentieth century in particular have emphasized Tradition not as a dead letter but as a living presence of the Holy Spirit But how can we discern Tradition as living discernment from fundamentalism What does it mean to live in Tradition when surrounded by something like the secular These essays interrogate these mutual implications beginning from the understanding that whatever secular or fundamentalist may mean they are not Tradition which is historical particularistic in motion ambiguous and pluralistic but simultaneously not relativistic Contributors R Scott Appleby Nikolaos Asproulis Brandon Gallaher Paul J Griffiths Vigen Guroian Dellas Oliver Herbel Edith M Humphrey Slavica Jakeli Nadieszda Kizenko Wendy Mayer Brenna Moore Graham Ward Darlene Fozard Weaver
