Beyond Colonialism Development And Globalisation Social Movement And Critical Perspectives:

Beyond Colonialism, Development and Globalization Dominique Caouette, Dip Kapoor, 2015-12-15 Development studies is in a state of flux A new generation of scholars has come to reject what was once regarded as accepted wisdom and increasingly regard development and globalization as part of a continuum with colonialism premised on the same reductionist assumption that progress and growth are objective facts that can be fostered measured assessed and controlled Drawing on a variety of theoretical perspectives and approaches this book explores the ways in which social movements in the Global South are rejecting Western centric notions of development and modernization as well as creating their own alternatives By assessing development theories from the perspective of subaltern groups and movements the contributors posit a new notion of development from below one in which these movements provide new ways of imagining social transformation and a way out of the developmental dead end that has so far characterized post development approaches Beyond Colonialism Development and Globalization therefore represents a radical break with the prevailing narrative of modernization and points to a bold new direction for development studies

Beyond Colonialism, Development and Globalisation Dominique Caouette, Dip Kapoor, Unravelling the Mysteries of Africa's Underdevelopment W. Forje, 2020-05-19 Unravelling the mysteries of Africa's underdevelopment presents an Afrocentric ideological understanding of the continent's fragmentation a scientific and objective Mijadala discourse as well as an approach of how to move progressively and sustainably Africa forward The breadth and depth of the book shows the unwavering impoverishment and urgent need for the continent to stand up and take the bull by the horn It offers an inspiring means of grappling with the continent's problems to build the change we want An African Wealth of Nation not the continent of collapsed failed states under the governance construct of centralised authoritarian regimes It is a thought provoking discourse that challenges us all to be inherent participants in the reconstruction of a Brave

New Africa far beyond the 21st Century Doing Critical and Creative Research in Adult Education Bernie Grummell, Fergal Finnegan, 2020-05-11 Scholarship on adult education has fueled a high level of methodological creativity and innovation in order to tackle a diverse range of issues in a wide range of settings and locations in a critical and participatory manner Adult education research is marked by the desire to do research differently and to conduct critical research with rather than about people which requires theoretical and methodological creativity This entails a particular approach to how we seek to know the world in collaboration with people to rupture hierarchical relations and to create new collaborative spaces of learning and research that encompass the diversity of people's life experiences Doing Critical and Creative Research in Adult Education brings together both leading and emerging scholars in adult education research in order to capture the vitality and complexity of contemporary adult education research This includes contributions on biographical narrative embodied arts and media based and ethnographic methods alongside the critical use of quantitative and mixed methods This distinctive and rich methodological contribution has a general relevance and usefulness for all researchers and students in the social science and humanities which draws attention to the importance of critical and creative participatory learning processes in human life and learning Development Education in Policy and Practice Stephen McCloskey, 2014-04-09 Development education is a radical form of learning that addresses the structural causes of poverty and injustice in the global North and South This volume debates development education practice and the policy environment in which it is delivered It affirmatively points to the transformative power of education as a means toward social change Global Democracy, Social Movements, And Feminism Catherine Eschle, 2018-03-08 In Global Democracy Social Movements and Feminism Catherine Eschle examines the relationship between social movements and democracy in social and political thought in the context of debates about the exclusions and mobilizations generated by gender hierarchies and the impact of globalization Eschle considers a range of approaches in social and political thought from long standing liberal republican Marxist and anarchist traditions through post Marxist and post modernist innovations and recent efforts to theorize democracy and social movements at a global level The author turns to feminist theory and movement practices and particularly to black and third world feminist interventions in debates about the democratization of feminism itself Eschle discusses the ways in which such debates are increasingly played out on a global scale as feminists grapple with the implication of globalization for movement organization The author then concludes with a discussion of the relevance of these feminist debates for the theorization of democracy more generally in an era of global transformation Critical Perspectives in Rural Development Studies Saturnino M. Borrás Jr., 2013-09-13 Agrarian transformations within and across countries have been significantly and dynamically altered during the past few decades compared to previous eras provoking a variety of reactions from rural poor communities worldwide The recent convergence of various crises financial food energy and environmental has put the nexus between rural development and development in general back onto the center stage of theoretical policy and political agendas in the world today Confronting these issues will require re engaging with critical theories taking politics seriously and utilizing rigorous and appropriate research methodologies These are the common messages and implications of the various contributions to this collection in the context of a scholarship that is critical in two senses questioning prescriptions from mainstream perspectives and interrogating popular conventions in radical thinking This book focuses on key perspectives frameworks and methodologies in agrarian change and peasant studies The contributors are leading scholars in the field of rural development studies Henry Bernstein Terence J Byres Saturnino M Borras Jr Marc Edelman Crist bal Kay Benedict Kerkvliet Philip McMichael Shahra Razavi Ian Scoones and Teodor Shanin This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies
