Beyond Culture By Edward T Hall:

Beyond Culture Edward T. Hall, 1976-12-07 From a renowned American anthropologist comes a proud celebration of human capacities For too long people have taken their own ways of life for granted ignoring the vast international cultural community that surrounds them Humankind must now embark on the difficult journey beyond culture to the discovery of a lost self a sense of perspective By holding up a mirror Hall permits us to see the awesome grip of unconscious culture With concrete examples ranging from James Joyce's Finnegans Wake to the mating habits of the bowerbird of New Guinea Hall shows us ourselves Beyond Culture is a book about self discovery it is a voyage we all must embark on if mankind is to survive Fascinating and emotionally challenging The book's graceful non technical style and the many illuminating real life illustrations make it a delight to read Library Journal Hall's book helps us to rethink our values We come away from it exhilarated Ashley Montagu In this penetrating analysis of the culturally determined yet unconscious attitudes that mold our thought feeling communication and behavior Hall makes explicit taken for granted linguistic patterns body rhythms personality dynamics educational goals Many of Hall's ideas are original and incisive and should reward careful readers with new ways of thinking about themselves and others Publishers Weekly A fascinating book which stands beside The Hidden Dimension and The Silent Language to prove Hall one of the most original anthropologists of our era Paul Bohannon

Communicating in the Third Space Karin Ikas, Gerhard Wagner, 2008-10-05 Communicating in the Third Space aims to clarify Homi K Bhabha's theory of the third space of enunciation by reconstructing its philosophical sociological geographical and political meaning with attention to the special advantages and ambiguities that arise as it is applied in practical as well as theoretical contexts The idea of third space conceives the encounter of two distinct and unequal social groups as taking place in a special third space of enunciation where culture is disseminated and displaced from the interacting groups making way for the invention of a hybrid identity whereby these two groups conceive themselves to partake in a common identity relating to shared space and common dialogue The essays collected in Communicating in the Third Space including a preface by Bhabha himself brilliantly introduce readers to this exciting topic in Cultural and Post Colonial theory and offers insightful elaboration and critique of the meaning and relevance of life in the third space With a preface by Homi K Bhabha Beyond Affirmative Action Robert A. Ibarra, 2001-03-05 A century ago universities were primarily in the business of molding upper class young men for the professions The world has changed and universities have been forced to keep pace by experimenting with affirmative action curriculum overhauls part time degree programs and the like But at the core of the modern university establishment is an ingrained academic culture that has operated in the same ways for centuries contends Robert Ibarra and in Beyond Affirmative Action he calls for a complete paradigm shift. Why does academic culture he asks emphasize individual achievement over teamwork? Why do so many exams test discrete bits of knowledge rather than understanding of the big picture? Why is tenure awarded for scholarly publications rather than for sharing knowledge in diverse ways with students and a wider community? Why do undergraduates drop out? And why do so many bright graduate students and junior faculty including many minorities, women and some majority males become disenchanted with academia or fail to be accepted and rewarded by the tenured faculty? Ibarra introduces a theory of multicontextuality which proposes that many people learn better when teachers emphasize whole systems of knowledge and that education can create its greatest successes by offering and accepting many approaches to teaching and learning. This revolutionary paradigm also addresses why current thinking about academic systems and organizational culture, affirmative action and diversity must be revised. Ibarra bases his groundbreaking proposals upon his own synthesis of findings from anthropological, educational and psychological studies of how people from various cultures learn, as well as findings from extended interviews he conducted with Latinos and Latinas who pursued graduate degrees and then either became university faculty or chose other careers. From his perspectives as a practicing anthropologist, teacher, researcher and administrator, Ibarra provides a blueprint for change that will interest o Administrators developing campus strategic plans o Boards, commissions and agencies making policy for educational institutions o Students and faculty struggling to find ways that academia can serve multiple constituencies o Academic and career advisors to students o Researchers in cognitive psychology, sociology, anthropology, education and ethnic studies o Businesses rethinking their organizational cultures and strategies
