Building Playgrounds, Engaging Communities Marybeth Lima, 2013-02-04 We accomplish extraordinary things when we do ordinary things together This heartfelt and hopeful conviction led LSU professor Marybeth Lima to begin the LSU Community Playground Project in an attempt to involve her students in the larger Baton Rouge community Fifteen years and over seven hundred students later Building Playgrounds Engaging Communities tells the story of the Playground Project s ongoing partnership with area public schools to build safe fun accessible kid designed playgrounds Lima s experiences with the Playground Project range from outright failures to hard won victories Overcoming the challenges of working with scarce resources Lima persevered despite many setbacks Her accounts brim with hope humor and dedication Building Playgrounds Engaging Communities emphasizes the major impact people can have when they work together for the common good whether by building playgrounds establishing neighborhood gardens or having honest respectful conversations To this end Lima provides an appendix with practical advice for local engagement People wanting to get involved in their communities can use this book as a road map those active in long term endeavors can draw on it for ideas and inspiration Sir, When

Is Our Next Stop? Terry G. Susong, 2012-06-30 This is your first day in the military You have been walking around in your underwear most of the day You have been taking test after test Finally you take the Oath You are now officially in the military At one p m someone shows up in a van and drives you to your basic training site Who are you You are Army recruits I ve had the privilege of driving to either Fort Knox Kentucky or Fort Jackson South Carolina or maybe you re a Marine recruit going to Parris Island South Carolina But you will all be one of a thousand young men and women I had the privilege of transporting to their basic training stations over a period of three years For I am the man who drives the van Retool

Gregory Ashe, 101-01-01 What would you do to get everything you wanted Life is good for Dashiell Dawson Dane just Dash Things with his boyfriend Bobby are better than ever Teaching at a local college has provided routine and stability And to his complete surprise his self published novel is doing well Really well So when a mystery writers conference comes to Hastings Rock Dash is thrilled to attend He s less thrilled when Vivienne Carver his former nemesis the woman who framed him for murder and then tried to kill him appears at the conference released from prison and determined to reclaim both fame and fortune And as usual Vivienne has a plan But when Vivienne is murdered the first night of the conference and Dash is once again the prime suspect he ll have to find the real killer to prove his innocence Even worse Dash might be right back where he started Leisureville Andrew D. Blechman, 2009-07-14 This revealing profile disappears down the rabbit hole into the largest gated retirement community in the world and what it discovers is fascinating The New York Times When his next door neighbors pick up and move from New England to an age restricted active adult development in Florida called The Villages Andrew D Blechman is astonished by their stories and determined to investigate Sprawling across two zip codes with a golf course for every day of the month two downtowns its own newspaper radio and TV station The Villages is a prefab paradise for retired Baby Boomers where not having children around seems to free them to act like adolescents The New York Times In the critically acclaimed Leisureville Blechman delves into this senior utopia offering a hilarious firsthand report on everything from ersatz nostalgia to the residents surprisingly active sex life Blechman also traces the history of this phenomenon travelling to Arizona to find out what pioneering developments like Sun City and Youngtown have become after decades of segregation Blending incisive social commentary and colorful reportage Blechman describes this brave new world with determined good humor and considerable bemusement Katherine A Powers The Boston Globe

Embedded hyperlinks in eBook Fully enhanced companion website that includes Instructor resources PowerPoint presentations Case Supplements Instructor Guides Student resources Quizzes Glossary Case Supplements Fast Food Andrew F. Smith, 2016-04-15 The single most influential culinary trend of our time is fast food It has spawned an industry that has changed eating the most fundamental of human activities From the first flipping of burgers in tiny shacks in the western United States to the forging of neon signs that spell out Pizza Hut in Cyrillic or Arabic scripts the fast food industry has exploded into dominance becoming one of the leading examples of global corporate success And with this success it has become one of the largest targets of political criticism blamed for widespread obesity cultural erasure oppressive labor practices and environmental destruction on massive scales In this book expert culinary historian Andrew F Smith explores why the fast food industry has been so successful and examines the myriad ethical lines it has crossed to become so As he shows fast food plain and simple devised a perfect retail model one that works everywhere providing highly flavored calories with speed economy and convenience But there is no such thing as a free lunch they say and the costs with fast food have been enormous an assault on proper nutrition a minimum wage labor standard and a powerful pressure on farmers and ranchers to deploy some of the worst agricultural practices in history As Smith shows we have long known about these problems and the fast food industry for nearly all of its existence has been beset with scathing exposés boycotts protests and government interventions which it has sometimes met with real changes but more often with token gestures blame passing and an unrelenting gauntlet of lawyers and lobbyists Fast Food ultimately looks at food as a business an examination of the industry's options and those of consumers and a serious inquiry into what society can do to ameliorate the problems this cheap and tasty product has created
