The Anthropology of Childhood David F. Lancy, 2015 Enriched with anecdotes from ethnography and the daily media this revised edition examines family structure reproduction profiles of children s caretakers their treatment at different ages their play work schooling and transition to adulthood The result is a nuanced and credible picture of childhood in different cultures past and present

Hunter-Gatherers of the Congo Basin Barry S. Hewlett, 2014-05-23 The forest foragers of the Congo Basin known collectively as Pygmies are the largest and most diverse group of active hunter gatherers remaining in the world At least fifteen different ethno linguistic groups exist in the Congo Basin with a total population of 250 000 to 350 000 individuals Extensive knowledge about these groups has accumulated in the last forty years but readers have been forced to piece together what is known from many sources French Japanese American and British researchers have conducted the majority of the research each national research group has its own academic traditions history and publications Here leading academic authorities from diverse national traditions summarize recent research on forest hunter gatherers The volume explores the diversity and uniformity of Congo Basin hunter gatherer life by providing detailed but accessible overviews of recent research It represents the first book in over twenty five years to provide a comprehensive and holistic overview of

African forest hunter gatherers Chapters discuss the cultural variation in characteristic features of Congo Basin hunter gatherer life such as their yodeled polyphonic music pronounced egalitarianism multiple child caregiving and complex relations with neighboring farming groups Other contributors address theoretical issues such as why Pygmies are short how tropical forest hunter gatherers live without the carbohydrates they receive from neighboring farmers and how hunter gatherer children learn to share so extensively

Anthropology and Nature Kirsten Hastrup, 2013-08-15 On the basis of empirical studies this book explores nature as an integral part of the social worlds conventionally studied by anthropologists The book may be read as a form of scholarly edgework resisting institutional divisions and conceptual routines in the interest of exploring new modalities of anthropological knowledge making The present interest in the natural world is partly a response to large scale natural disasters and global climate change and to a keen sense that nature matters matters to society at many levels ranging from the microbiological and genetic framing of reproduction over co species development to macro ecological changes of weather and climate Given that the human footprint is now conspicuous across the entire globe in the oceans as well as in the atmosphere it is difficult to claim that nature is what is given and permanent while people and societies are ephemeral and simply derivative features This implies that society matters to nature and some natural scientists look towards the social sciences for an understanding of how people think and how societies work The book thus opens up a space for new forms of reflection on how natures and societies are generated

Embodying Middle Class Gender Aspirations Kailing Xie, 2021-04-25 This book takes a feminist approach to analyse the lives of well educated urban Chinese women who were raised to embody the ideals of a modern Chinese nation and are largely the beneficiaries of the policy changes of the post Mao era It explores young women s gendered attitudes to and experiences of marriage reproductive choices careers and aspirations for a good life It sheds light on what keeps mainstream Chinese middle class women conforming to the current gender regime It illuminates the contradictory effects of neoliberal techniques deployed by a familial authoritarian regime on these women s striving for success in urban China and argues that paradoxically women s individualistic determination to succeed has often led them onto the path of conformity by pursuing exemplary norms which fit into the party state s agenda

Postcolonial Youth in Contemporary British Fiction , 2021-07-19 The concepts of youth and the postcolonial both inhabit a liminal locus where new ways of being in the world are rehearsed and struggle for recognition against the impositions of dominant power structures Departing from this premise the present volume focuses on the experience of postcolonial youngsters in contemporary Britain as rendered in fiction thus envisioning the postcolonial as a site of fruitful and potentially transformative friction between different identitary variables or sociocultural interpellations In so doing this volume provides varied evidence of the ability of literature and of the short story genre in particular to represent and swiftly respond to a rapidly changing world as well as to the new socio cultural realities and conflicts affecting our current global order and the generations to come Contributors are Isabel M Andr s Cuevas Isabel Carrera Su rez Claire

Ethnographies in Pan Pacific Research Robert E. Rinehart,elke emerald,Rangi Matamua,2015-06-26 The book is about exciting ethnographic happenings in the vibrant and growing global interface which includes Australia New Zealand and some of the Asian geographical regions as well as more broadly the global South It explores ethnographic writing as culture s re produced positionalities of authors tensions between authors and others multi faceted groups and as co productions of these works The contributors describe and discuss a variety of topical areas of interest from Facebook to memory work from children s sexuality to urban racism from meanings of Indigenous knowledge to how communities can come together to retain what is valuable to themselves The authors also manage to locate themselves and others positionings in the research hierarchies tensions This is a valuable guide to the effects of 21st century ethnography on the qualitative research project

The Anthropology of Postindustrialism Ismael Vaccaro,Krista Harper,Seth Murray,2015-10-08 This volume explores how mechanisms of postindustrial capitalism affect places and people in peripheral regions and de industrializing cities While studies of globalization tend to emphasize localities newly connected to global systems this collection in contrast analyzes the disconnection of communities away from the market presenting a range of ethnographic case studies that scrutinize the framework of this transformative process analyzing new social formations that are emerging in the voids left behind by the de industrialization and introducing a discussion on the potential impacts of the current economic and ecological crises on the hyper mobile model that has characterized this recent phase of global capitalism and spatially uneven development

Environmental Anthropology Helen Kopnina,Eleanor Shoreman-Ouimet,2013-07-18 This volume presents new theoretical approaches methodologies subject pools and topics in the field of environmental anthropology Environmental anthropologists are increasingly focusing on self reflection not just on themselves and their impacts on environmental research but also on the reflexive qualities of their subjects and the extent to which these individuals are questioning their own environmental behavior Here contributors confront the very notion of natural resources in granting non human species their subjectivity and arguing for deeper understanding of nature and wilderness beyond the label of ecosystem services By engaging in interdisciplinary efforts these anthropologists present new ways for their colleagues subjects peers and communities to understand the causes of and alternatives to environmental destruction This book demonstrates that environmental anthropology has moved beyond the construction of rural small group theory entering into a mode of solution based methodologies and interdisciplinary theories for understanding human environmental interactions It is focused on post rural existence health and environmental risk assessment on the realm of alternative actions and emphasizes the necessary steps towards preventing environmental crisis

Adolescent Identity Evolutionary Cultural And Developmental Perspectives Routledge Studies In Anthropology: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Adolescent Identity Evolutionary Cultural And Developmental Perspectives Routledge Studies In Anthropology : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
