Adoption And Loss The Hidden Grief:

Adoption and Loss - The Hidden Grief Evelyn Robinson,2000-09-01 Based on the author s personal experience as a mother who lost a child through adoption and her experience as a social worker who has worked extensively in the area of post adoption counselling with adults this resource graphically describes the disenfranchised grief associated with adoption and suggests ways in which that hidden grief can be acknowledged and confronted Adoption and Loss Evelyn Burns Robinson,2000 Adoption and loss the hidden grief Destiny's Angel Lynette Caroline Selles,Lyn Selles,2003 Adoption in the Digital Age Julie Samuels,2018-02-13 Adoption in the Digital Age explores the transformation of adoption due to social and digital media technologies The most prolific of these changes can be seen within contact arrangements particularly those that are not managed by an intermediary between adopted minors and their biological kin Within this shift it becomes clear that this often breached contact arrangement lends itself towards discussions about further openness within adoption At the same time these technologies continue to document the way adopted individuals and their biological kin feel about themselves and each other It is for these reasons that the Internet remains both a promise and threat Samuels explores this in detail highlighting that what it means to be adopted continues to evolve in the context of networked media cultures Combining both theoretical discussions with the human experience of adoption Adoption in the Digital Age will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology social work and cultural studies as well as practitioners working with adoptive families and other members of the adoption triad connected and disconnected by adoption Counting Our Losses Darcy L. Harris,2011-01-19 This text is a valuable resource for clinicians who work with clients dealing with non death nonfinite and ambiguous losses in their lives It explores adjustment to change transition and loss from the perspective of the latest thinking in bereavement theory and research The specific and unique aspects of different types of loss are discussed such as infertility aging chronic illnesses and degenerative conditions divorce and separation immigration adoption loss of beliefs and loss of employment Harris and the contributing authors consider these from an experiential perspective rather than a developmental one in order to focus on the key elements of each loss as it may be experienced at any point in the lifespan Concepts related to adaptation and coping with loss such as resilience hardiness meaning making and the assumptive world transcendence and post traumatic growth are considered as part of the integration of loss into everyday life experience Mother Me Zara H Phillips,2011-02-01 The adopted daughter of loving parents Zara Phillips felt out of place since childhood Although cherished she grew up deeply insecure and alone consumed by a void she found impossible to fill Isolation led to alienation until her talent brought her to the center of the heady London rock n roll scene of the 1980s Zara became lost in a downward spiral of drugs alcohol and destructive relationships An intense search for the truth of her birth led to an awakening and then to recovery Zara s activism for adoptee rights springs from a very personal passion In the end it was Zara s experience of becoming a mother that revealed what being adopted really meant For the first time she gained deep understanding and compassion for both her birth mother and her adoptive mother and was able to start the healing process Mother Me bravely illuminates the lifelong impact of adoption on every member of the adoption triad adoptee birth mother and adoptive mother as well as the families of each The tale of Zara's search for her birth mother and her path to recovery is riveting as are the stories of many people sharing her past

International Advances in Adoption Research for Practice Gretchen Miller Wrobel, Elsbeth Neil, 2009-01-12 This is a unique compilation of cross cultural and international attitudes towards adoption research and outcomes Whilst informal adoption of children has probably always existed across all human societies this work is timely in that interest in the role of legal adoption as both a child welfare solution and as a means of alternative family formation for adults wanting to become parents has never been higher This book is an edited collection of 13 papers based on invited keynote presentations or paper symposia presentations given at the Second International Conference on Adoption Research ICAR2 2006 It gives a unique Cross cultural look at adoption from worldwide multidisciplinary community of distinguished and emerging adoption researchers International appeal with different countries laws attitudes and outcomes fully explored Grieving Reproductive Loss Kathleen Gray, Anne Lassance, 2018-10-26 Grieving Reproductive Loss The Healing Process acknowledges the devastating impact these losses can have Written in plain language the book attempts to bring about a greater understanding of the grief associated with reproductive loss and through the Healing Process Model copyright offers a holistic approach for constructive healthy grieving and healing of body mind and spirit Becoming a Mother Mari Gallagher, 2018-12-28 Becoming a Mother is the first book published in Ireland exploring the complexity of adoption from the perspective of an adoptive parent It draws on a combination of seminal and modern texts and personal memoir to present a unique view of what it means to be an adoptive parent in Ireland today The book has a particular focus on intercountry adoptive parenting and also looks at adoption from the viewpoints of the adopted person and birth parent A dearth of literature exploring adoption exists on Irish bookshelves Becoming a Mother seeks to fill that void by exploring issues around the topic of adoption the secrecy and silence that still pervades adoption the primal desire to parent that drives adoptive parenting the tumultuousness of search and reunion and more It includes shared experiences and tips on bonding with the adopted child as well as a look at parenthood for the adopted person Becoming a Mother will be of interest to the estimated 10 per cent of the Irish population connected to adoption in some way including the 5 000 children who were adopted from abroad The book has been included as essential reading on preparatory courses for prospective adoptive parents and also on Barnardos post adoptive service reading list After Adoption Janette Logan, Carole Smith, 2013-01-11 Few children nowadays are placed for adoption with no form of contact planned with birth relatives and it has become common professional practice to advocate direct rather than indirect contact Practice has outstripped evidence in this respect and not enough is known about how contact arrangements actually work out particularly for older children adopted from state care

Such children have often experienced neglect and sometimes abuse and have frequently been adopted without parental agreement. Based on research with a large number of adoptive parents, children and birth relatives, After Adoption considers the impact of direct post adoption contact on all concerned in such cases. It also discusses the development of adoption policy and law, particularly with regard to the legal and social consequences, reviews the research evidence on adopted children's contact with their birth families, explores through interviews participants' feelings about adoption and direct contact, their relationships with each other, what hinders and what helps. After Adoption challenges readers to re-think the relationship between adoption and the possibility of direct post adoption contact and at the same time provides a comprehensive understanding of adoption issues. It is a timely and valuable addition to the literature on adoption, making a substantial contribution to policy and practice.
