Undocuments John-Michael Rivera,2021-03-30 UNDOCUMENTS is an expansive multi genre exploration of Greater Mexican documentality that reveals the complicated ways all Latinx peoples including the author become objectified within cultures John Michael Rivera remixes the Florentine Codex and other documents as he takes an intense look at the anxieties and physical detriments tied to immigration

Islam and Nationalism in India M.T. Ansari,2015-10-30 Islam in India as elsewhere continues to be seen as a remainder in its refusal to conform to national and international secular modern norms Such a general perception has also had a tremendous impact on the Muslims of the Indian subcontinent who as individuals and communities have been shaped and transformed over centuries of socio political and historical processes by eroding their world view and steadily erasing their life worlds This book traces the spectral presence of Islam across narratives to note that difference and diversity demographic as well as cultural can be espoused rather than excised or exorcized Focusing on Malabar home to the Mappila Muslim community in Kerala South India and drawing mostly on Malayalam sources the author investigates the question of Islam from various angles by constituting an archive comprising popular administrative academic and literary discourses The author contends that an uncritical insistence on unity has led to a formation in which minor subjects embody an excess of identity in contrast to the Hindu citizen whose identity seemingly coincides with the national This has led to Muslims being the source of a deep seated anxiety for secular nationalism and the targets of a resurgent Hindutva in that they expose the fault lines of a geographically and socio culturally unified nation An interdisciplinary study of Islam in India from the South Indian context this book will be of interest to scholars of modern Indian history political science literary and cultural studies and Islamic studies

Windows into The West Wing Patrick Webster,2020-04-17 The West Wing first broadcast in 1999 is thought by many to have been one of the most significant dramas shown on network television Despite its overly idealized depiction of American political life and blatant contradictions in the way we consider America its values its aspirations and its behavior in the world The West Wing nonetheless succeeds in attaining popular national and international aesthetic appeal This book aspires to explain the appeal of the show by considering issues such as race religion sexuality disability and education from both a practical and theoretical perspective through the lenses of feminism gender theory Marxism psychoanalytical theories structuralism poststructuralism postcolonialism and more It seeks to offer informative and revealing readings of one of the most significant television productions of recent times

Grounding Education in Environmental Humanities Lucas Johnston,Dave Aftandilian,2018-11-05 This edited volume draws together educators and scholars to engage with the difficulties and benefits of teaching place based education in a distinctive culture laden area in North America the United States South Despite problematic past visions of cultural homogeneity the South has always been a culturally diverse region with many historical layers of inhabitation and migration each with their own set of religious and secular relationships to the land Through site specific narratives this volume offers a blueprint for new approaches to place based pedagogy with an emphasis on the intersection between religion and the environment By offering broadly applicable examples of pedagogical methods and practices this book confronts the need to develop more sustainable local communities to address globally significant challenges
