Fellowship in Paradise Lost: Vergil, Milton, Wordsworth André Verbart, 2022-03-16 The present study examines the relationship of Milton's Adam and Eve their different identities and their different roles and explicates the link between the nature of their relationship and the dramatic developments of the biblical story The story is considered in the light of Milton's ethics as explicated and implicated in Paradise Lost which are crucially different from the present day ethics which we naturally tend to superimpose or take for granted He makes use of two particular means of investigation Firstly the author provides a technical analysis of Milton's style with an emphasis on verbal often latinate ambiguity and on a feature hitherto hardly described in Milton criticism namely syntactical ambiguity all yielding extra information Secondly on the basis of newly found verbal parallels between Milton's Christian epic and Vergil's Roman epic the Aeneid the author provides an analysis of the intended contrast between Milton's Adam and Eve and Vergil's Dido and Aeneas on Milton's request so to speak the romance of Adam and Eve is put in the epic and Vergilian context The author's observations on Milton's strategic use of the Aeneid as an antithetic frame of reference for his own Paradise Lost also leads to an investigation into a poem which in its turn uses Milton's Paradise Lost as an antithetic frame of reference namely Wordsworth's Prelude The Watkins Dictionary of Angels Julia Cresswell, 2012-01-01 For anyone who has ever wondered just what an angel is here you will find everything you could wish to know about angels and angelic beings and their attributes
