Animals People A Novel:

Other Animals in Twenty-First Century Fiction Catherine Parry, 2017-07-19 This book is about ordinary animals and how they are imagined in twenty first century fiction Examining contemporary animal representations and the fraught and potent distinctions humans fashion between themselves and all other animals it asks how a range of novels make re make or un make traditional conceptions of the creatures we love admire eat vilify and abuse Other Animals detailed readings of horses an animalised human a donkey ants chickens and chimpanzees develop new critical practices in Literary Animal Studies They explore the connections between fictional animal representation narrative form ethics and the lives and warm bodies of the real world creatures that precede and exceed our imagination Human animal relationships are conditioned by our imaginative shapings of other animals and by our sense of distinction from them and Other Animals opens out how fictional animal forms and tropes respond to participate in or challenge the ways animals lives are lived out in consequence of human imaginings of them

Novel Creatures Hilary Thompson, 2018-05-03 Novel Creatures takes a close look at the expanding interest in animals in modern fiction and argues that the novels of this time reveal a dramatic shift in conceptions of creatureliness Scholars have turned to the term creaturely recently to describe shared aspects of human and animal experience thus moving beyond work that primarily attends to distinctions between the human and the animal Carrying forward this recent scholarship Novel Creatures argues that creatureliness has been an intensely millennial preoccupation but in two contrasting forms one leading up to the turn of the century the other after the tragic events of 9 11

New Approaches to the Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Novel Sibylle Baumbach, Birgit Neumann, 2019-12-20 This book discusses the complex ways in which the novel offers a vibrant arena for critically engaging with our contemporary world and scrutinises the genre s political ethical and aesthetic value Far reaching cultural political and technological changes during the past two decades have created new contexts for the novel which have yet to be accounted for in literary studies Addressing the need for fresh transdisciplinary approaches that explore these developments the book focuses on the multifaceted responses of the novel to key global challenges including migration and cosmopolitanism posthumanism and ecosickness human and animal rights affect and biopolitics human cognition and anxieties of inattention and the transculturality of terror By doing so it testifies to the ongoing cultural relevance of the genre Lastly it examines a range of 21st century Anglophone novels to encourage new critical discourses in literary studies

Unthinking Mastery Julietta Singh, 2018-01-03 Julietta Singh challenges the drive toward the mastery over self and others by showing how the forms of self mastery advocated by anticolonial thinkers like Fanon and Gandhi unintentionally reproduced colonial logic thereby leading her to argue for a more productive human subjectivity that is not centered on concepts of mastery
