Interpreting Immigration at Museums and Historic Sites Dina A. Bailey, 2018-05-02 Interpreting Immigration at Museums and Historic Sites draws from the collective learning of the forty museums and historic sites that make up the Immigration and Civil Rights Network of the International Coalition of Sites of Conscience Members of the Network have developed interpretive approaches that tap the power of place and history to open new dialogue on difficult subjects in a wide variety of contexts The title considers the questions How can museums use their collections and key stories as starting points for audience engagement around immigration past and present How can museums move beyond the we are a nation of immigrants narrative a narrative that does not resonate for all audiences How can museums make opportunities for safe open dialogue on immigration accessible to all stakeholders including both new immigrants and receiving communities Interpreting Immigration includes strategies for the design implementation marketing and sustaining of programs that help visitors use the lens of history to address contemporary immigration issues and provides Case studies from eight regionally diverse institutions including ethnic identity museums immigration museums and local history sites Piloted and evaluated immigration program designs including models for exhibit development art based interpretation school programs adult programs and neighborhood walking tours Audience building strategies A tested evaluation toolkit for measuring institutional success Lessons learned through the National Dialogues on Immigration Project a cross regional series of public programs designed to spark a national conversation on critical immigration topics like citizenship American identity border control freedom of movement and civil liberties Association Monthly ,1870

Investing Robert Hagstrom, 2013-01-08 In this updated second edition well known investment author Hagstrom explores basic and fundamental investing concepts in a range of fields outside of economics including physics biology sociology psychology philosophy and literature The Daily 5 Gail Boushey, Joan Moser, 2006 Do you love teaching but feel exhausted from the energy you expend cajoling disciplining and directing students on a daily basis Are you questioning the value of busy work but afraid that ceasing from such activities will lead to chaos in the classroom Have you heard the phrase work smarter not harder but don't have a clue how to start If so you'll want to meet The Sisters Gail Boushey and Joan Moser They set about designing a structure that would ensure all children were working at their level of challenge while taking responsibility for their learning and behaviour and that would provide meaningful instruction blocks without extensive preparation time for teachers Thus the Daily Five was born Based on literacy learning and motivation research the Daily Five has been practiced and refined in their own classrooms for 10 years and shared with thousands of teachers throughout the United States The Daily Five is a series of literacy tasks reading to self reading with someone writing word work and listening to reading which students complete daily while the teacher meets with small groups or confers with individuals
