Ebony, 1977-05 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The National Alliance of Black Feminists Ileana Nachescu, 2025-06-24 Founded in 1975 the non partisan National Alliance of Black Feminists NABF played a critical role in the Black women s liberation movement and the fight for the Equal Rights Amendment The Chicago based organization s Black humanist feminism powered a singular dedication to building coalitions while influencing its historic set of comprehensive political economic and cultural demands Ileana Nachescu places the NABF s history as the bridge between Black women s social activism in the 1970s and the intellectual activism of the 1980s Her account details the NABF s work and how it reflected the group s strong humanist belief in the transformation of all human beings Nachescu also shows that the NABF s post Eighties erasure from movement histories is consistent with how many white feminists marginalized women of color and rejected their leadership From there Nachescu examines Black lesbians vibrant support of the NABF and shows how respectability politics pressured the group to support its lesbian membership in private but maintain a public silence on the issue A rare in depth look at an overlooked organization The National Alliance of Black Feminists tells an untold story of Black women s liberation in the Midwest Resources in Education, 1980 Talking Difference Mary Crawford, 1995-08-11 Talking Difference provides an excellent critical review of a good selection of the research in language and gender published over the last 20 years including a substantial amount from the area of psychology I found this an exhilarating book written with energy and wit Crawford maintains a consistently critical approach identifying contradictions and ambiguities in popular theories of gender difference and exposing conceptual and methodological weaknesses in language and gender research The volume is well structured and readable it will prove very valuable in undergraduate and beginning postgraduate courses in language and gender or in women s studies as well as offering much which should interest students of communication studies and social psychology Language in Society The alternative to the essentialist approach Crawford proposes is the social constructionist view Crawford s analysis of conversational humor is particularly eye opening Talking Difference is not only a great read but also an acute criticism of current research and a very important contribution to feminist theory Journal of Pragmatics African American Communication Michael L.
