

and I should get out of his house forever. I went down to the beach and sat down on the sand and cried. I felt like I was disappearing. Like the whole world was dividing into two parts. Me, and everybody else. And then this guy came down the beach, this dirty-looking little elf. He stopped in front of me and smiled this twinkly devil smile and said, "Your daddy kicked you out." He knew! "Your daddy kicked you out!" How could he know? My daddy didn't tell him, so who could've? God. God sent this dirty-looking little elf to save a little girl lost on a beach. He smiled again and touched my hair and off he went. And for a minute I just watched him go. Then I ran and caught his hand, and till they arrested him for stabbing Sharon Tate, I never let it go.

Prudence from Christopher Durang's BEYOND THERAPY

Do I want to be married? I have no idea. It's so confusing. I know when I was a little girl, Million Dollar Movie showed this film called "Every Girl Should Be Married" every night for seven days. It was this dumb comedy about this infantile girl played by Betsy Drake who wants to be married to this pediatrician played by Cary Grant who she sees in a drugstore. She sees him for two minutes, and she wants to move in and have babies with him. And he finds her totally obnoxious, but then at the end of the movie suddenly says, "You're right, you're adorable," and then they get married. And what confused me further was that the actress Betsy Drake did in fact marry Cary Grant in real life. Of course, it didn't last, and he married several other people, and then later Dyan Cannon said he was insane and took LSD and so maybe one wouldn't want to be married to him at all. But if it's no good being married to Cary Grant, who is it good being married to?

Adelaide from Michael Redhill's BUILDING JERUSALEM

Dr. Pearson, I have sat around for over ninety minutes this evening and listened to you denigrate anything that is unfamiliar or unappealing to you, as if it is your main calling to disillusion anyone who doesn't see things the way you do. Do you know that it is, in fact, dangerous to feed our infants milk? Plain milk, Dr. Pearson. While you are measuring the attributes of your race of perfect men and women, there are babies who are dead because no one taught their mothers how to heat milk. It's simple: having reached a temperature of thirty-two degrees centigrade, milk will cease to pose any kind of a threat to an infant. It is sweet and nourishing. At thirty-one degrees, however, it is potentially poison, full of lethal germs. One degree, Dr. Pearson. Can you measure that for us? Thirty-two and you wake up a family. Thirty-one and you have to call the casket-maker. Have you ever held one of your own children in your arms, watching the very life drain from its face? Because you were feeding it poison and you didn't know any better? (slight beat) Or is that just women's work? ...

from Lynn Marie Macy's CRUNCHING NUMBERS

Look, I have to step over homeless people and drug addicts in the street just to get into my office building. People are crazy here. Every time I go out I'm afraid I'm gonna run into some kook. Sickos just come right up to you. They do this insane stuff right in
