Beyond Maintenance To Mission:

Beyond Maintenance to Mission Craig L. Nesson, 1999 This book argues compellingly for the centrality of mission in understanding the church and provides a model for congregational leadership that will help move congregations beyond a maintenance mentality to vital engagement with the world God loves Nesson's model of congregational leadership is strongly centered on worship life of a congregation and the entirety of the church's ministry The chapters provide solid theological and practical direction on the themes of worship education fellowship stewardship evangelism global connections ecumenism and social ministry It is a book that will find a home in both the academy and the parish a textbook for seminarians and a guide and resource for pastors and lay congregational leaders Beyond Maintenance to Mission Craig L.

Nesson, 2010-02-24 Here in a newly revised edition is a powerful and pertinent guide for congregations wanting to move away from maintenance thinking to powerful creative engagement with the world Visionary yet practical Nesson's influential book makes a persuasive case for the centrality of mission in the life of the church Nesson's model of mission driven leadership is strongly centered on the community of faith's worship and draws unique connections between the worship life of a congregation and every aspect of the church's ministry Around the twin foci of congregational identity and mission the chapters in this dynamic book provide solid theological and radical direction on the themes of worship education fellowship stewardship evangelism global connections and social ministry Equally pertinent to seminary classroom and parish life the new edition highlights worship's centrality adds a new chapter on prayer and spiritual practices in this framework significantly revises the treatments of fellowship and evangelism and adds a full set of materials designed for congregational visioning and planning The Ultimate Mission Guide: Unlocking Success Beyond Impossible Pasquale De Marco, In

From Memory to Imagination C. Randall Bradley, 2012-09-21 The relatively recent worship wars over styles of worship traditional contemporary or blended have calmed down and many churches have now reached decisions about which worship style defines them At a more fundamental level however change has yet to begin In From Memory to Imagination Randall Bradley argues that fallout from the worship wars needs to be cleaned up and that fundamental cultural changes namely the effects of postmodernism call for new approaches to worship Outlining imaginative ways for the church to move forward this book is a must read for church leaders and anyone interested in worship music

Churches on Mission Geoffrey Hartt, Christopher R. Little, John Wang, 2017-09-15 The twenty first century is marked by a renewed emphasis on the missional responsibility of individual Christians and local churches Churches on Mission God's Grace Abounding to the Nations is an attempt to explore the relationship between the local church and its missionary responsibilities Through history theology case studies and actual ministry practices each author in this collection presents an aspect of local church participation The book aims to be informational and inspirational on many levels and invites readers from local churches to become active participants in the mission of God

Shalom Church Craig L. Nesson, 2010-08-02 Craig Nesson's important new work retrieves biblical metaphors of the body of Christ and following Dietrich Bonhoeffer sees church today as Christ existing as community To theological probing Nesson then adds contextual analysis and describes the four chief imperatives that mark Christ's presence in the world today peacemaking justice making care for creation and engagement with the other He then unfolds the real life implications of this paradigm of Christian community for the local church structure strategies for partnering public witness and interreligious engagement

Everyday Writing Center Anne Ellen Geller, Michele Eodice, Frankie Condon, Meg Carroll, Elizabeth H. Boquet, 2007-04-01 The Everyday Writing Center challenges some of the most comfortable traditions in its field and it does so with a commitment and persuasiveness that one seldom sees in scholarly discussion The book at its core is an argument for a new writing center consciousness one that makes the most of the writing center's unique and uniquely fluid identity Writing center specialists live with a liminality that has been acknowledged but not fully explored in the literature Their disciplinary identity is with the English department but their mission is cross disciplinary their research is pedagogical but they often report to central administration Their education is in humanities but their administrative role demands constant number crunching This fluid identity explains why Trickster an icon of spontaneity shape shifting and the creative potential of chaos has come to be a favorite cultural figure for the authors of this book. Adapting Lewis Hyde and others, these authors use Trickster to develop a theme of ordinary disruptions the everyday as a source of provocative learning moments that can liberate both student writers and writing center staff. At the same time, the authors parlay Etienne Wenger's concept of community of practice into an ethos for a dynamic learner centered pedagogy that is especially well suited to the peculiar teaching situation of the writing center. Through Trickster they question not only accepted approaches to writing center pedagogy but conventional approaches to race, time, leadership and collaboration as well. They encourage their field to exploit the creative potential in ordinary events that are normally seen as disruptive or defeating and they challenge traditions in the field that tend to isolate a writing center director from the department and campus. Yet all is not random for the authors anchor this high risk high yield approach in their commitment to a version of Wenger's community of practice. Conceiving of themselves, their colleagues, student writers and student tutors as co learners engaged together in a dynamic life of learning, the authors find a way to ground the excess and randomness of the everyday while advancing an ethic of mutual respect and self challenge. Committed to testing a region beyond the edge of convention, the authors of The Everyday Writing Center constantly push themselves and their field toward deeper, more significant research and more reflective, dynamic teaching.

Servantship Graham Joseph Hill, 2013-10-10. Servantship is essentially about following our Lord Jesus Christ, the servant Lord, and his mission. It is a life of discipleship to him, patterned after his self emptying, humility, sacrifice, love, values and mission. Servantship is humbly valuing others more than yourself and looking out for the interests and wellbeing of others. Servantship is the cultivation of the same attitude of mind Christ Jesus had, making yourself nothing, being a servant, humbling yourself and submitting yourself to the will and purposes of the triune God. Since servantship is the imitation of Christ, it involves an unreserved participation in the missio Dei, the Trinitarian mission of God. In this pioneering work, sixteen servants describe the four movements of radical servantship: Servantship is the movement 1 from leadership to radical servantship, 2 from shallowness to dynamic theological reflection, 3 from theories to courageous practices, and 4 from forgetfulness to transforming memory. Servantship recognizes in word, thought and deed that whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be first must be your slave, just as the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.
