My Bipolar Memoir of Poetry and Hope Susan Walz, 2017-07-27 My memoir shares my story of what it s like to live survive and eventually thrive with Bipolar 1 Disorder Through my unique and creative approach of using poetry and prose I take the reader with me on my journey full of pain sorrows losses suicide attempts homelessness the ups and downs of bipolar and how I learned how to cope reached recovery and became a bipolar survivor My journey shows my strength and perseverance to overcome many obstacles and struggles and is full of hope love inspiration and my faith in God My collection of poetry and prose express my pain sorrow courage resiliency inspiration and hope all at the same time Honestly and openly I share my deep and most inner thoughts in a manner that lets the reader enter inside my mind showing what it s like to live with bipolar which can be very sad lonely and painful but can also be a very positive life full of hope love and the joy of living and survival I hope my book will inspire and give hope to everyone that reads it

I'm Not Crazy Just Bipolar Wendy K. Williamson, 2010-11 An informative yet humorous look at life with manic depressive illness

Memoir of Madness Paul Stark, 2014-02-07 In Washington D C Paul Stark handled contracts for the Federal Government worth millions of dollars and had a military security clearance with access to some of this Nation s most sensitive secrets All the while he suffered from a crippling mental illness that eventually struck him down Along the way he became a confidential informant to the FBI negotiated contracts worth more than 100 Million and grazed the power politics of Washington He also spent years in and out of mental institutions This is a powerful and graphic depiction of mental illness This is a must read for anyone interested in mental illness in general bipolar disorder in particular the interplay of religion and psychosis and anyone seeking to know how a person can make peace with such a devastating illness and live a meaningful life Show more Show less Burn Rate Andy Dunn,2023-05-09 NATIONAL BESTSELLER In this gripping TechCrunch eye opening Gayle King Oprah Daily memoir of mental illness and entrepreneurship the co founder of the menswear startup Bonobos opens up about the struggle with bipolar disorder that nearly cost him everything Arrestingly candid the most powerful book I ve read on manic depression since An Unquiet Mind Adam Grant 1 New York Times bestselling author of Think Again and host of WorkLife At twenty eight fresh from Stanford s MBA program and steeped in the move fast and break things ethos of Silicon Valley Andy Dunn was on top of the world He was building a new kind of startup a digitally native direct to consumer brand out of his Manhattan apartment Bonobos was a new school approach to selling an old school product men s pants Against all odds business was booming Hustling to scale the fledgling venture Dunn raised tens of millions of dollars while boundaries between work and life evaporated As he struggled to keep the startup afloat Dunn was haunted by a ghost a diagnosis of bipolar disorder he received after a frightening manic episode in college one that had punctured the idyllic veneer of his midwestern upbringing He had understood his diagnosis as an unspeakable shame that according to the taciturn codes of his fraternity the business world and even his family should be locked away As Dunn s business began to take off however some of the very traits that powered his success as a founder relentless drive confidence bordering on hubris and ambition verging on delusion were now threatening to undo him A collision course was set in motion and it would culminate in a night of mayhem one poised to unravel all that he had built Burn Rate is an unconventional entrepreneurial memoir a parable for the twenty first century economy and a revelatory look at the prevalence of mental illness in the startup community With intimate prose Andy Dunn fearlessly shines a light on the dark side of success and challenges us all to take part in the deepening conversation around creativity performance and disorder Desire: A Memoir Jonathan Dollimore,2017-07-27 Fifty years after the Sexual Offences Act of 1967 decriminalised homosexual acts Jonathan Dollimore explores in through and beyond the gay sub cultures of cities like New York Brighton and Sydney what the new freedoms meant for him and others in the following decades He writes honestly and movingly about his teenage attraction to risk and danger of accidents and escapes of curiosity as a flight from boredom of suicidal depression and ecstasy and beneath all of the life of desire haunted and torn by loss For more than thirty years Jonathan Dollimore has been one of contemporary culture s most influential critics of politics literature and sexuality Desire A Memoir a hybrid of autobiography meditation and philosophical reflection explores the existential sources of his writing Bipolar in Barbados Christian Browne,2018-03-31 On the brink of insanity Christian was a normal young man in his early twenties living a regular life in Toronto with a great job until something unexpected happened when on vacation in Barbados It was as if a bolt of lightning had struck his brain changing it forever and completely altering his perception of reality

Bipolar in Barbados A Memoir of My First Manic Episode is a personal recollection of the events leading up to an unknown illness which was later identified as Bipolar Type 1 Something happened to me over the last few months something I can't explain I don't even know when exactly it happened But the maddening question is why it happened why it happened to me Why do I only sleep 5 hrs at night Why when I wake up is my mind racing Why am I compelled to write it down and share it Why would I do this knowing that it will piss people off knowing that others will see this as me trying to get attention or seek some unknown ulterior motive How long will this last Will I ever go back to plain old boring fading into the background me I had an experience something that changed me forever and all I've been trying to do is to share that with those closest to me All you've heard about is all the happy go lucky stuff and the pictures I send are all of good times friends having fun everyone smiling What you don't see is me waking up in a basement all alone wondering why this is all happening Sitting at a computer screen at 5am typing away till my fingers hurt not knowing why hoping and praying for answers so that this would all make sense I've never been so scared in my entire life When I look in the mirror the face that looks back seem familiar but something about it is different There's something in the eyes that's changed Is it a holy fire The fires of hell Or something more tangible and real the struggles of one on the brink of insanity I don't know and that's what scares the hell outta me that basic innate human fear of the unknown I was only hoping that my friends and family would be able to comfort me guide me do anything so I didn't feel so lost confused and lonely
