A Small Corner Of Hell Dispatches From Chechnya:

A Small Corner of Hell Anna Politkovskaya, 2007-04-15 Chechnya a 6 000 square mile corner of the northern Caucasus has struggled under Russian domination for centuries The region declared its independence in 1991 leading to a brutal war Russian withdrawal and subsequent governance by bandits and warlords A series of apartment building attacks in Moscow in 1999 allegedly orchestrated by a rebel faction reignited the war which continues to rage today Russia has gone to great lengths to keep journalists from reporting on the conflict consequently few people outside the region understand its scale and the atrocities described by eyewitnesses as comparable to those discovered in Bosnia committed there Anna Politkovskaya a correspondent for the liberal Moscow newspaper Novaya gazeta was the only journalist to have constant access to the region Her international stature and reputation for honesty among the Chechens allowed her to continue to report to the world the brutal tactics of Russia s leaders used to quell the uprisings A Small Corner of Hell Dispatches from Chechnya is her second book on this bloody and prolonged war More than a collection of articles and columns A Small Corner of Hell offers a rare insider s view of life in Chechnya over the past years Centered on stories of those caught literally in the crossfire of the conflict her book recounts the horrors of living in the midst of the war examines how the war has affected Russian society and takes a hard look at how people on both sides are profiting from it from the guards who accept bribes from Chechens out after curfew to the United Nations Politkovskaya s unflinching honesty and her courage in speaking truth to power combine here to produce a powerful account of what is acknowledged as one of the most dangerous and least understood conflicts on the planet Anna Politkovskaya was assassinated in Moscow on October 7 2006 The murder of the journalist Anna Politkovskaya leaves a terrible silence in Russia and an information void about a dark realm that we need to know more about No one else reported as she did on the Russian north Caucasus and the abuse of human rights there Her reports made for difficult reading and Politkovskaya only got where she did by being one of life s difficult people Thomas de Waal Guardian

Terror in Chechnya Emma Gilligan, 2009-11-09 A riveting history of Russia s crimes in Chechnya Terror in Chechnya is the definitive account of Russian war crimes in Chechnya Emma Gilligan provides a comprehensive history of the second Chechen conflict of 1999 to 2005 revealing one of the most appalling human rights catastrophes of the modern era one that has yet to be fully acknowledged by the international community Drawing upon eyewitness testimony and interviews with refugees and key political and humanitarian figures Gilligan tells for the first time the full story of the Russian military s systematic use of torture disappearances executions and other punitive tactics against the Chechen population In Terror in Chechnya Gilligan challenges Russian claims that civilian casualties in Chechnya were an unavoidable consequence of civil war She argues that racism and nationalism were substantial factors in Russia s second war against the Chechens and the resulting refugee crisis She does not ignore the war crimes committed by Chechen separatists and pro Moscow forces Gilligan traces the radicalization of Chechen fighters and sheds light on the Dubrovka and Beslan hostage crises demonstrating how they undermined the separatist movement and in turn contributed to racial hatred against Chechens in Moscow A haunting testament of modern day crimes against humanity Terror in Chechnya also looks at the international response to the conflict focusing on Europe's humanitarian and human rights efforts inside Chechnya The Century's Midnight Clive Bush, 2010 The Century's Midnight is an exploration of the literary and political relationships between a number of ideologically sophisticated American and European writers during a mid twentieth century dominated by the Second World War Clive Bush offers an account of an intelligent and diverse community of people of good will transcending national ideological and cultural barriers Although structured around five central figures the novelist Victor Serge the editors Dwight Macdonald and Dorothy Norman the cultural critic Lewis Mumford and the poet Muriel Rukeyser the book examines a wealth of European and American writers including Hannah Arendt Simone de Beauvoir Walter Benjamin John Dos Passos Andr Gide Henry Miller Ana's Nin George Orwell Boris Pilniak Albert Camus Jean Paul Sartre Ignacio Silone and Richard Wright The book's central theme relates politics and literature to time and narrative The author argues that knowledge of the writers of this period is of inestimable value in attempting to understand our contemporary world A History of the Soviet Union From the Beginning to Its Legacy Peter Kenez, 2016-10-27 This updated third edition examines political social and cultural developments in the Soviet Union as well as the post Soviet period A Constellation of Vital Phenomena Anthony Marra, 2013-05-07 A haunting novel set in a nearly abandoned hospital in war torn Chechnya that is both intimate and ambitious in scope Eight year old Havva Akhmed the neighbour who rescues her after her father's disappearance and Sonia the doctor who shelters her over 5 dramatic days in December 2004 must all reach back into their pasts to unravel the intricate mystery of coincidence betrayal and forgiveness which unexpectedly binds them and decides their fate In his bold debut Anthony Marra proves that sometimes fiction can tell us the truth of the world far better and far more powerfully than any news story You will not forget the world he creates A Constellation of Vital Phenomena and its characters will haunt you long after you turn the final page The Use of Force and Article 2 of the ECHR in Light of European Conflicts Hannah Russell, 2017-11-16 Article 2 of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR in its current form is incomplete and outdated Due to significant development at a legislative and judicial level the right to life spans beyond what is enumerated within Article 2 With the belief that Article 2 is still relevant this book investigates how the right to life can be better protected within Europe It advocates for the modernisation of Article 2 through codifying legislative and judicial developments relevant to this provision in the form of guidelines It also considers the improvements that can be made by the Council of Europe CoE bodies the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR the Committee of Ministers CoM the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe PACE and the CoE Commissioner for Human Rights to encourage adherence to Article 2 and promote effective remedies to prevent future violations It uses the experience from four internal European conflicts the Basque conflict the Chechen conflict the Northern Ireland Troubles and the Turkish Kurdish conflict to illustrate its points Righting Wrongs Robin Kirk,2022-06-14 Many young people aren't aware that determined individuals created the rights we now take for granted The idea of human rights is relatively recent coming out of a post World War II effort to draw nations together and prevent or lessen suffering Righting Wrongs introduces children to the true stories of 20 real people who invented and fought for these ideas Without them many of the rights we take for granted would not exist These heroes have promoted women's disabled and civil rights action on climate change and the rights of refugees These advocates are American Sierra Leonean Norwegian and Argentinian Eleven are women Two identified as queer Twelve are people of color One campaigned for rights as a disabled person Two identify as Indigenous Two are Muslim and two are Hindu and others range from atheist to devout Christian There are two journalists one general three lawyers one Episcopal priest one torture victim and one Holocaust survivor Their stories of hope and hard work show how people working together can change the world for the better The Russia Reader Adele Marie Barker,Bruce Grant,2010-07-12 An introduction to the history culture and politics of the world's largest country from the earliest written accounts of the Russian people to today Democracy and Counterterrorism Robert J. Art,Louise Richardson,2007 A comparative study of the policies strategies and instruments employed by various democratic governments in the fight against terrorism Putin's Wars Marcel H. Van Herpen,2015-07-01 This fully updated book offers the first systematic analysis of Putin's three wars placing the Second Chechen War the war with Georgia of 2008 and the war with Ukraine of 2014 2015 in their broader historical context Drawing on extensive original Russian sources Marcel H Van Herpen analyzes in detail how Putin's wars were prepared and conducted and why they led to allegations of war crimes and genocide He shows how the conflicts functioned to consolidate and legitimate Putin's regime and explores how they were connected to a fourth hidden internal war waged by the Kremlin against the opposition The author convincingly argues that the Kremlin relying on the secret services the Orthodox Church the Kremlin youth Nashi and the rehabilitated Cossacks is preparing for an imperial revival most recently in the form of a Eurasian Union An essential book for understanding the dynamics of Putin's regime this study digs deep into the Kremlin's secret long term strategies Readable and clearly argued it makes a compelling case that Putin's regime emulates an established Russian paradigm in which empire building and despotic rule are mutually reinforcing As the first comprehensive exploration of the historical antecedents and political continuity of the Kremlin's contemporary policies Van Herpen's work will make a valuable contribution to the literature on post Soviet Russia and his arguments will stimulate a fascinating and vigorous debate
