A Taste Of Persia An Introduction To Persian Cooking:

A Taste of Persia: An Introduction to Persian Cooking Najmieh Batmanglij, 2012-02-23 A Taste of Persia is a collection of authentic recipes from one of the world's oldest cuisines chosen and adapted for today's lifestyle and kitchen. Here are light appetizers and kababs, hearty stews and rich golden crusted rice among many other dishes all fragrant with the distinctive herbs, spices or fruits of Iran. Each recipe offers clear, easy-to-follow step-by-step instructions. Most take less than an hour to prepare; many require only a few moments; many others can be made in advance. Besides its 100 recipes and 60 photographs, the book includes a useful dictionary of Persian cooking techniques and ingredients, a list of specialty stores around the nation that sell hard-to-find items, and a brief history of Persian cookery. Together, these make a complete introduction to this wonderful cuisine.

Taste Makers Mayukh Sen, 2021-11-16 An NPR Best Book of the Year, A New York Times Editors' Choice pick, Wall Street Journal's Who Read What Favorite Books of 2021, Longlisted for the 2022 Brooklyn Public Library Book Prize, Observer Food Monthly's 50 Things We Love in the World of Food Right Now, Named a best book for the holidays by Wall Street Journal, Vogue, Oprah's O, Quarterly Globe. Marcella Hazan, the deity of Italian cuisine, and Norma Shirley, a champion of Jamaican dishes. In imaginative, lively prose, Mayukh Sen, a queer brown child of immigrants, reconstructs the lives of these women in vivid and empathetic detail, daring to ask why some were famous in their own time but not in ours, and why others shine brightly even today. Weaving together histories of food, immigration, and gender, Taste Makers will challenge the way readers look at what's on their plate and the women whose labor is overlooked for so long, making those meals possible.

An Encounter with Dylan Thomas Ebrahim Golestan, 2022-09-27 Abadan 1951. Iran and Britain are bracing for battle over the continued British monopoly of Iran's oil. Twenty-nine-year-old Ebrahim Golestan, who was to become a towering figure in Iranian cinema and literature, encounters Dylan Thomas, the famous Welsh poet who died two years later at the age of thirty-nine from bronchial disease and pneumonia. More for his celebrity than an intimate knowledge of the subject, Thomas had been sent to Iran by the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company to write a script for a propaganda film about the company's supposedly salutary role in the country. But for a few hours, Golestan and Thomas pause amidst the escalating standoff between their two countries and speak candidly about poetry, history, philosophy, and the perils of translation. Published here for the first time is the English translation, with facing pages in the original Persian, of Golestan's unflinching portrayal of that encounter, revealing all too clearly how unsuited Thomas was for the task in hand. Accompanying the translation is an account of Thomas's time in Iran, written by Abbas Milani, Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford University, together with Alina Utrata, a Ph.D. candidate and Gates Cambridge scholar. Based on the poet's letters, journals, and archival material in England and Wales, it helps to shed further light on an episode long shrouded in mystery and plagued by controversy. Publication of this book coincides with the hundredth birthday in October 2022 of Ebrahim Golestan. To mark the occasion, Professor Milani has included a personal and erudite introductory essay on Golestan's life and work, examining his pioneering approach to film.

and his important contribution to Iranian literature despite living in exile for most of his adult life With a filmography and selected bibliography of the works by or about Golestan this multifaceted volume offers not only a striking commentary on Iranian arts politics and history set against the tense backdrop of the impending geopolitical clash between Britain and Iran but also a commemoration of the work of one of the most eminent and influential representatives of Iranian culture in modern times

The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz, 2010-04-14 Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively

Culture and Customs of Iran Elton L. Daniel, Ali Akbar Mahdi, 2006-10-30 Iran is often a hotspot in the news and the Muslim state is usually negatively portrayed in the West Culture and Customs of Iran rejects facile stereotyping and presents the rich age old Persian culture that struggles with pressures of the modern world This is the first volume in English to reveal the important sociocultural facets of Iran today for a general audience in an objective fashion Authoritative substantive narrative chapters cover the gamut of topics from religion and religious thought to Iranian cuisine and festivals

The Naturally Good Man Rod E. Keays, 2013-03-13 Men inherit definitions about manhood but many of these definitions no longer fit A society that was once based on power assumptions and stereotypes is changing Few people take time to learn about the history of male oppression the foundations of male masculinity and the evolution of the modern man Join author Rod E Keays as he examines these important topics and more including why boys and men accept certain roles why men bully each other why its important to deal with emotions and why its so hard for men to talk about sexuality Keays explores his own experiences coping with the twists and turns that come with being a man One thing he learns early on is that most men dont talk about their emotional highs and lows As someone who likes to talk openly and frankly he feels isolated but he continues living life on his terms Discover what good men have been doing for thousands of years and how mens groups can help men achieve their goals The world may have its share of problems but The Naturally Good Man continues to contribute to society

History of Paper in Iran, 1501-1925 Willem Floor, Amélie Courvat Desvergnés, 2022-10-04 The Chinese invented papermaking which by the 8th century had reached the Muslim world in Samarkand and Baghdad and Spain by the 11th century Much later at the end of the 18th century onwards modern industrial papermaking was developed by the Europeans The History of Paper in Iran 1501 to 1925 sets out for the reader the types of paper made in Iran during the Safavid and Qajar periods and the crucial role imported paper played in the country The Iranian government attempted to introduce modern European paper production technology first by sending students abroad to learn about this technology and then by purchasing equipment to set up a paper industry However during the 19th century domestic Iranian paper production came under increasing pressure from paper imports and the government abandoned its efforts to modernize the domestic paper industry The authors renowned scholar Willem Floor in collaboration with Am lie Couvrat Desvergnés a museum conservator of artworks on paper and books identify and illustrate the watermarks and or countermarks of the various paper producers and provide examples of the diversity of quality composition and nature of the different types of paper used by various strata of the Iranian society Also provided are detailed import data showing which country exported paper to Iran via which routes as well as their changing market position over time Finally the various end uses of paper from books and farmans to paintings and diverse packing and utilitarian paper are examined and where possible quantified data are presented This book will reward scholars and general readers alike
