Imprisoned by the Past Jeffrey L. Kirchmeier, 2015 In 1987 the United States Supreme Court decided a case that could have ended the death penalty in the United States Imprisoned by the Past Warren McCleskey and the American Death Penalty examines the long history of the American death penalty and its connection to the case of Warren McCleskey revealing how that case marked a turning point for the history of the death penalty In this book Jeffrey L Kirchmeier explores one of the most important Supreme Court cases in history a case that raised important questions about race and punishment and ultimately changed the way we understand the death penalty today McCleskey s case resulted in one of the most important Supreme Court decisions in U S history where the Court confronted evidence of racial discrimination in the administration of capital punishment The case currently marks the last time that the Supreme Court had a realistic chance of completely striking down capital punishment As such the case also marked a turning point in the death penalty debate in the country Going back nearly four centuries this book connects McCleskey s life and crime to the issues that have haunted the American death penalty debate since the first executions by early settlers through the modern twenty first century death penalty Imprisoned by the Past ties together three unique American stories First the book considers the changing American death penalty across centuries where drastic changes have occurred in the last fifty years Second the book discusses the role that race played in that history And third the book tells the story of Warren McCleskey and how his life and legal case brought together the other two narratives

The Way That Lives in the Heart Jean Elizabeth DeBernardi, 2006 The Way That Lives in the Heart is a richly detailed ethnographic analysis of the practice of Chinese religion in the modern multicultural Southeast Asian city of Penang Malaysia The book conveys both an understanding of shared religious practices and orientations and a sense of how individual men and women imagine represent and transform popular religious practices within the time and space of their own lives This work is original in three ways First the author investigates Penang Chinese religious practice as a total field of religious practice suggesting ways in which the religious culture including spirit mediumship has been transformed in the conjuncture with modernity Second the book emphasizes the way in which socially marginal spirit mediums use a religious anti language and unique religious rituals to set themselves apart from mainstream society Third the study investigates Penang Chinese religion as the product of a specific history rather than presenting an overgeneralized overview that claims to represent a single Chinese religion

The Legacy of a Troubled Past Bernard Cros, Mathilde Rogez, Gilles Teulie, 2022-06-07 Since the advent of democracy in 1994 South Africa has been engaged in an unprecedented exercise of national soul searching torn between the need to lay to rest centuries of racial conflict and the desire to come to terms with its traumatic history This book asks whether the country has begun to turn the corner on the legacy of collective hurt To do so it ranges in scope across 350 years of South African history encompassing the struggle against the apartheid regime the downfall of white supremacy the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the first 25 years of democracy up to more recent movements such as RhodesMustFall or the inquests into the 2012 Marikana massacre that point to the persistence of traumatic memory in contemporary society The authors assembled here set out to analyse the representation of such memory how it has been woven into narratives recorded preserved and questioned and how issues of individual and collective responsibility have been grafted onto it through the visual arts literature political discourse and public action In focusing on memory along with its derived forms of memorialization collective memory nostalgia or post memory our contributors pose a fundamental question is South Africa finally coming to the end of the post apartheid transition period Do the decades of memory work on racial violence and repression examined here hold out hope for the nation to make peace with its past

Perpetrators of Mass Atrocities Alette Smeulers,2023-12-22 The 9 11 attacks as well as the ones in Madrid London Paris and Brussels the genocides in Nazi Germany Rwanda and Cambodia the torture in dictatorial regimes the wars in former Yugoslavia Syria and Iraq and currently in Ukraine the sexual violence during periods of conflict all make us wonder why would anyone do something like that Who are these people Drawing on 30 years of research in this book Alette Smeulers explores the perpetrators of mass atrocities such as war crimes crimes against humanity genocide and terrorism Examining questions of why people kill and torture and how mass atrocities can be explained Smeulers presents a typology of perpetrators with different ranks roles and motives Devoting one chapter to each type of perpetrator the book combines insights from academic research with illustrative case studies of well known perpetrators from dictators to middlemen to lower ranking officials and terrorists Their stories are explored in depth as the book examines their behaviour and motivation Perpetrators of Mass Atrocities thus provides a comprehensive understanding of the causes of extreme mass violence Such knowledge not only can help the international criminal justice system to be able to attribute blame in a fairer way but can also assist in preventing such atrocities being committed on the current scale Perpetrators of Mass Atrocities is essential reading for all those interested in war crimes genocide terrorism and mass violence

A School in Trouble William R. Holland,2010-09-16 During and after his term as interim Central Falls superintendent in 2006 2007 Bill Holland sought answers to why some Central Falls High School students had school success while over half of their classmates failed to graduate Much can be learned from how these students survived in a chronically low achieving school located in the poorest community in the state Holland provides behind the scenes details on the issues of poverty ineffective teaching and cultural differences while also advising students parents and teachers on ways to gain greater educational success Before the book was completed a federal and state mandate unexpectedly resulted in the superintendent having to adopt a turn around model and fire the entire high school faculty and staff an action that set off a firestorm between the school and state leadership and the American Federation of Teachers The conflict made national headlines and was mentioned by President Obama as a prime example of a last resort approach in reforming failing inner city schools
