Secrets from the Casting Couch Nancy Bishop, 2009-08-19 This is a practical workbook written from the casting director's point of view that teaches actors the craft of film casting in front of camera

Spatializing Literacy Research and Practice Kevin M. Leander, Margaret Sheehy, 2004 Current research on literacy often conceives space as a container within which social practice occurs. In sharp contrast, this edited collection argues that literary practice and social space are produced in relation to one another. Contributors to this collection consider how a spatial analysis provides entirely new information for the interpretation of literary practice. Traversing geography and literacy studies drawing on Bakhtin, Deleuze and Guattari, Lefebvre, Soja and a range of other theorists, contributors analyze space-literacy relations in diverse settings including classrooms, prisons, streets, institutional programs, homes and the popular media

British Cultural Identities

Mike Storry, Peter Childs, 2022-08-31 The sixth edition of British Cultural Identities assesses the degree to which being British impinges on the identity of the many people who belong to contemporary Britain. Twenty-first century British identity is analysed through the various and changing ways in which people who live in the UK position themselves and are positioned by their culture. Using examples from contemporary and popular culture, each chapter covers one of eight intersecting themes including places and peoples, education, work and leisure, gender, sex and the family, youth culture and style, class and politics, ethnicity and language, religion and heritage. This new edition is fully updated to include the latest information on Britain in the 2020s. It explains the influences that shape British identities and outlines the important current debates stemming from cultural, social and political change. Considering contemporary touchstones and recent national statistics, the contributors place modern British life in the context of the activities, events and society found in the UK across recent decades. The book is the perfect introductory text for students of contemporary British society, containing photographs, tables, timelines, discussion questions, cultural examples and suggestions for further resources at the end of each chapter.

The History of Late Modern Englishes Keith Johnson, 2021-05-26 The History of Late Modern Englishes provides an accessible and student-friendly introduction to the history of the English language from the beginning of the eighteenth century up until the present day. Taking an activity-based approach, this text ensures that students learn by engaging with the fascinating evolution of this language rather than by simply reading about it. The History of Late Modern Englishes covers the development of Englishes around the world, not only in the British Isles but also in the United States, Canada, India, Singapore, Australia, New Zealand and Melanesia, as well as in other countries around the world where English is used as a lingua franca. It accommodates the needs of both native and non-native speakers of English with helpful features such as a glossary of key terms and questions to guide the reader through the book. Includes activity sections and discussion points to help students engage with the text. Is accompanied by e-resources which include further activities and additional coverage of points of interest in the book. Written by an experienced teacher and author, this book is an essential course textbook for any module on the history of English and the perfect accompaniment to the author's own The History of Early English

Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds
