Bonnard at Le Bosquet Pierre Bonnard, 1994 Monet to Matisse Richard Thomson, Michael Clarke, 1994

Bonnard and the Nabis Albert Kostenevitch, 2012-05-08 Pierre Bonnard was the leader of a group of post impressionist painters who called themselves the Nabis from the Hebrew word meaning prophet Bonnard Vuillard Roussel and Denis the most distinguished of the Nabis revolutionized the spirit of decorative techniques during one of the richest periods in the history of French painting Influenced by Odilon Redon and Puvis de Chavanne by popular imagery and Japanese etchings this post impressionist group was above all a close circle of friends who shared the same cultural background and interests An increasing individualism in their art often threatened the group's unity and although tied together by a common philosophy their work clearly diverged This publication lets us compare and put into perspective the artists within this fascinating group The works presented in this collection offer a palette of extraordinary poetic expressions candid in Bonnard ornamental and mysterious in Vuillard gently dream like in Denis grim and almost bitter in Vallotton the author shares with us the lives of these artists to the very source of their creative gifts

Edouard Vuillard Gloria Lynn Groom, Edouard Vuillard, 1993-01-01 Edouard Vuillard 1868 1940 one of the most admired post impressionist artists is best known for his small easel paintings and their charming portrayals of everyday life However a major part of his work during his early life was the painting of large decorative panels in the Parisian homes of wealthy private patrons produced between 1892 and 1912 These panels some fifty in total have been little studied due principally to the inaccessibility of many of them and the impossibility of their being included in exhibitions

The Artist's Garden Jackie Bennett, 2019-10-29 The Artist's Garden offers an intriguing study into 20 gardens that have inspired and been home to some of the greatest painters of history The most alluring image of an artist at work is surely one where he or she has come out of their studio set up their easel on the garden path pulled on a hat to shade their eyes from the sun and taken their brush and palette in hand This sumptuously illustrated and fascinating book delves into the stories behind the gardens which inspired some of the most beautiful and important works of art These gardens not only supplied the inspiration for creative works but also illuminate the professional motivation and private life of the artists themselves from Cezanne's house in the south of France to Childe Hassam at Celia Thaxter's garden off the coast of Maine Flowers and gardens have often been the first choice for artists looking for a subject A garden close to the artist's studio is not only convenient for daily material and ideas but also has the advantage of changing through the seasons and over time Claude Monet's Giverny was the catalyst for hundreds of great paintings by Monet and other artists each one different from the one before Sometimes a whole village becomes the focus for a colony of artists as at Gerberoy in Picardy and Skagen on the northernmost tip of Denmark This book is about the real homes and gardens that inspired these great artists gardens that can still be visited today The relationship between artist and garden is a complex one A few artists including Pierre Bonnard and his neighbour Monet were keen gardeners as much in love with their plants as their work while for others like Sorolla in Madrid his courtyard home was both a sanctuary and a source of ideas This book is as unmissable for art lovers as it is for anyone who knows the joy of time spent in gardens offering an intriguing insight into the lives of these great painters and the gardens which inspired them to their creative heights

Beyond the Easel Gloria Lynn Groom, Nicholas Watkins, Jennifer Paoletti, Thérèse Barruel, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001-01-01 The Contributions of Artists Pierre Bonnard Edouard Vuillard Maurice Denis and Ker Xavier Roussel to the French avant garde of the 1890s as members of the Nabis are widely recognized What is less known about these artists careers is their extraordinary work in decorative painting work on a large or unusual scale for private interiors This illustrated book focuses on the many decorative works carried out by the four artists between 1890 and 1930 During these years they moved beyond the narrow parameters of easel painting and applied their wholly untraditional aesthetic of decoration to a wide range of works for domestic interiors from wall size ensembles to folding screens The cosmopolitan group of patrons who made this work possible ranged from the avant garde circle of La Revue Blanche to prominent members of the French establishment An examination of their role and tastes is another fascinating feature of this publication The book and accompanying exhibition reunite paintings that have long been dispersed introducing contemporary viewers to a group of bold and evocative works which had a wide ranging though little recognized influence on modern art As the book's authors argue the aesthetic embodied by these works indeed helped set the stage for the large non narrative paintings by artists as diverse as Rothko and Lichtenstein that came to dominate the avant garde after World War II
