Abstract Video The Moving Image In Contemporary Art:

Abstract Video Gabrielle Jennings, 2015-09-15 Offering historical and theoretical positions from a variety of art historians artists curators and writers this groundbreaking collection is the first substantive sourcebook on abstraction in moving image media With a particular focus on art since 2000 Abstract Video addresses a longer history of experimentation in video net art installation new media expanded cinema visual music and experimental film Editor Gabrielle Jennings a video artist herself reveals as never before how works of abstract video are not merely as the renowned curator Kirk Varnedoe once put it pictures of nothing but rather amorphous ungovernable spaces that encourage contemplation and innovation In explorations of the work of celebrated artists such as Jeremy Blake Mona Hatoum Pierre Huyghe Ryoji Ikeda Takeshi Murata Diana Thater and Jennifer West alongside emerging artists this volume presents fresh and vigorous perspectives on a burgeoning and ever changing arena of contemporary art

Abstract Art (Second) (World of Art) Anna Moszynska, 2020-04-14 An exceptionally clear thorough and well illustrated introduction to abstract art since 1900 Since the early years of the twentieth century Western abstract art has fascinated outraged and bewildered audiences Its path to acceptance within the artistic mainstream was slow This revised edition traces the origins and evolution of abstract art placing it in broad cultural context Well respected scholar Anna Moszynska examines the pioneering work of Hilma af Klint Wassily Kandinsky Kazimir Malevich and Piet Mondrian alongside the Russian Constructivists the De Stijl group and the Bauhaus artists contrasting European geometric abstraction in the 1930s and 40s with the emphasis on personal expression after World War II Op kinetic and minimal art of the postwar period is discussed and illustrated in detail and new chapters bring the account up to date exploring the crisis in abstraction of the 1980s and its revival in paint fabric sculpture and installation in recent decades The first edition of Abstract Art published in 1990 was acclaimed by reviewers Revised with extensive updates this book includes new chapters on recent trends and offers fully global coverage of art produced in North and South America Europe China Korea and the Middle East Now in full color and comprehensively revised it will serve as the best introduction to abstract art for a new generation

Contemporary Art and the Digitization of Everyday Life Janet Kraynak, 2020-11-10 Digitization is the animating force of everyday life Rather than defining it as a technology or a medium Contemporary Art and the Digitization of Everyday Life argues that digitization is a socio historical process that is contributing to the erosion of democracy and an increase in political inequality specifically along racial ethnic and gender lines Taking a historical approach Janet Kraynak finds that the seeds of these developments are paradoxically related to the ideology of digital utopianism that emerged in the late 1960s with the rise of a social model of computing a set of beliefs furthered by the neo liberal tech ideology in the 1990s and the popularization of networked computing The result of this ongoing cultural worldview which dovetails with the principles of progressive artistic strategies of the past is a critical blindness in art historical discourse that ultimately compromises art s historically important role in furthering radical democratic aims Deleuze and the Map-Image Jakub Zdebik, 2019-05-30 The map as it appears in Gilles Deleuze's writings is a concept guiding the exploration of new territories no matter how abstract With the advent of new media and digital technologies contemporary artists have imagined a panoply of new spaces that put Deleuze's concept to the test Deleuze's concept of the map bridges the gap between the analog and the digital information and representation virtual and actual canvas and screen and is therefore best suited for the contemporary artistic landscape Deleuze and the Map Image explores cartography from philosophical and aesthetic perspectives and argues that the concept of the map is a critical touchstone for contemporary multidisciplinary art This book is an overview of Deleuze's cartographic thought read through the theories of Sloterdijk Heidegger and Virilio and the art criticism of Laura U Marks Carolyn L Kane and Alexander Galloway shaping it into a critical tool through which to view the works of cutting edge artists such as Janice Kerbel and Hajra Waheed who work with digital and analog art After all Deleuze did write that a map can be conceived as a work of art and so herein art is critiqued through cartographic strategies Experimental and Expanded Animation Vicky Smith, Nicky Hamlyn, 2018-08-21 This book discusses developments and continuities in experimental animation that since Robert Russett and Cecile Starr's Experimental Animation Origins of a New Art 1976 has proliferated in the context of expanded cinema performance and live making and is today exhibited in galleries public sites and online With reference to historical critical phenomenological and interdisciplinary approaches international researchers offer new and diverse methodologies for thinking through these myriad animation practices This volume addresses fundamental questions of form such as drawing and the line but also broadens out to encompass topics such as the inter medial post humanism the real fakeness and fabrication causation new forms of synthetic space ecology critical workings of cartoons and process as narrative This book will appeal to cross and interdisciplinary researchers animation practitioners scholars teachers and students from Fine Art Film and Media Studies Philosophy and Aesthetics Making Images Move Gregory Zinman, 2020-01-03 Making Images Move reveals a new history of cinema by uncovering its connections to other media and art forms In this richly illustrated volume Gregory Zinman explores how moving image artists who worked in experimental film pushed the medium toward abstraction through a number of unconventional filmmaking practices including painting and scratching directly on the film strip deteriorating film with water dirt and bleach and applying materials such as paper and glue This book provides a comprehensive history of this tradition of handmade cinema from the early twentieth century to the present opening up new conversations about the production meaning and significance of the moving image From painted film to kinetic art and from psychedelic light shows to video synthesis Gregory Zinman recovers the range of forms tools and intentions that make up cinema's shadow history deepening awareness of the intersection of art and media in the twentieth century and anticipating what is to come
