

ASSETS

Assets are resources owned by a business that have economic value. They are the result of investments made by the business or its owners. Assets are recorded on the balance sheet and are classified into current assets and non-current assets.

- Current Assets: These are assets that are expected to be converted into cash or sold within one year. Examples include cash, accounts receivable, inventory, and prepaid expenses.
- Non-current Assets: These are assets that are not expected to be converted into cash or sold within one year. Examples include property, plant, and equipment, and intangible assets like patents and trademarks.

Assets are measured at their fair value, which is the price that would be received from the sale of an asset in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

LIABILITIES

Liabilities are obligations of a business that are expected to result in an outflow of resources. They are the result of borrowing from others or the business's own operations. Liabilities are recorded on the balance sheet and are classified into current liabilities and non-current liabilities.

- Current Liabilities: These are liabilities that are expected to be settled within one year. Examples include accounts payable, short-term debt, and accrued liabilities.
- Non-current Liabilities: These are liabilities that are not expected to be settled within one year. Examples include long-term debt and deferred tax liabilities.

Liabilities are measured at their fair value, which is the price that would be received from the sale of a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

RETAINED EARNINGS

Retained Earnings represent the portion of a company's profits that are retained within the company rather than being distributed to the owners. They are recorded on the balance sheet and are classified into accumulated profits and dividends or drawings.

- Accumulated Profits: These are the profits that have been retained by the company and are available for reinvestment or distribution.
- Dividends or Drawings: These are the amounts that have been distributed to the owners of the company.

EQUITY

Equity represents the ownership interest in a business. It is the result of investments made by the business or its owners. Equity is recorded on the balance sheet and is classified into contributed capital and retained earnings.

- Contributed Capital: This is the amount of capital that has been contributed to the business by its owners.
- Retained Earnings: This is the portion of a company's profits that are retained within the company rather than being distributed to the owners.
