Germany and the Second World War Ralf Blank, Jörg Echternkamp, Karola Fings, Jürgen Förster, Winfried Heinemann, Tobias Jersak, Armin Nolzen, Christoph Rass, 2008-07-03 The Second World War affected the lives and shaped the experience of millions of individuals in Germany soldiers at the front women children and the elderly sheltering in cellars slave labourers toiling in factories and concentration camp prisoners and POWs clearing rubble in the Reich's devastated cities Taking a history from below approach the volume examines how the minds and behaviour of individuals were moulded by the Party as the Reich took the road to Total War The ever increasing numbers of German workers conscripted into the Wehrmacht were replaced with forced foreign workers and slave labourers and concentration camp prisoners The interaction in everyday life between German civilian society and these coerced groups is explored as is that society's relationship to the Holocaust From early 1943 the war on the home front was increasingly dominated by attack from the air The role of the Party administration police and courts in providing for the vast numbers of those rendered homeless in bolstering civilian morale with miracle revenge weapons propaganda and in maintaining order in a society in disintegration is reviewed in detail For society in uniform the war in the east was one of ideology and annihilation with intensified indoctrination of the troops after Stalingrad The social profile of this army is analysed through study of a typical infantry division The volume concludes with an account of the various forms of resistance to Hitler's regime in society and the military culminating in the failed attempt on his life in July 1944

Barbara de Blomberg Nicolás Acero y Abad, 1901 The Development of the German Air Force, 1919-1939 Prof. Richard Suchenwirth, 2017-06-28 The Development of the German Air Force 1919 to 1939 first published in 1968 written by Professor Richard Suchenwirth and revised and edited by Mr Harry R Fletcher is one of a series of historical studies written for the United States Air Force Historical Division by men who had been key officers in or outstanding authorities on the German Air Force during World War II The overall purpose of the series is twofold 1 To provide the United States Air Force with a comprehensive and insofar as possible authoritative history of a major air force which suffered defeat in World War II a history prepared by many of the principal and responsible leaders of that air force 2 to provide a firsthand account of that air force's unique combat in a major war especially its fight against the forces of the Soviet Union This series of studies therefore covers in large part virtually all phases of the Luftwaffe's operations and organization from its camouflaged origin in the Reichswehr during the period of secret rearmament following World War I through its participation in the Spanish Civil War and its massive operations and final defeat in World War II with particular attention to the air war on the Eastern Front

Moody's Industrial Manual, 1919

The Luftwaffe James S. Corum, 1997 This study provides an appraisal of Germany's air forces from the post World War I era through the early stages of World War II The author demolishes several myths surrounding the Luftwaffe including the belief that they had no ideas beyond the support of ground forces

The End of the Welfare State? Stefan Svallfors, Peter Taylor-Gooby, 2012-10-12 Throughout the world politicians from all the main parties are cutting back on state welfare provision encouraging people to use the private sector instead and developing increasingly stringent techniques for the surveillance of the poor Almost all experts agree that we are likely to see further constraints on state welfare in the 21st Century Gathering together the findings from up to date attitude surveys in Europe East and West the US and Australasia this revealing book shows that contrary to the claims of many experts and policy makers the welfare state is still highly popular with the citizens of most countries This evidence will add to controversy in an area of fundamental importance to public policy and to current social science debate

Germany and the Second World War, 1990 This is the second in the comprehensive ten volume Germany and the Second World War The five volumes so far published in German take the story to the end of 1941 and have achieved international acclaim as a major contribution to historical study Under the auspices of the Militargeschichtliches Forschungsamt Research Institute for Military History a team of renowned historians has combined a full synthesis of existing material with the latest research to produce what will be the definitive history of the Second World War This volume surveys the first year of the war deliberately begun by Nazi Germany The authors examine the train of interconnected political and military events and set military operations against the background of Hitler's war policy and general aims both immediate and long term The authors show that the conflict took a course quite different from that which Hitler had intended but nevertheless resulted in a series of conquests for the Third Reich
