J.D. Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye Sarah Graham, 2007-06-11 J.D. Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye 1951 is a twentieth century classic. Despite being one of the most frequently banned books in America, generations of readers have identified with the narrator Holden Caulfield, an angry young man who articulates the confusion, cynicism, and vulnerability of adolescence with humour and sincerity. This guide to Salinger's provocative novel offers an accessible introduction to the text and contexts of The Catcher in the Rye, a critical history surveying the many interpretations of the text from publication to the present, a selection of new critical essays on The Catcher in the Rye by Sally Robinson, Renee R. Curry, Denis Jonnes, Livia Hekanaho, and Clive Baldwin, providing a range of perspectives on the novel and extending the coverage of key critical approaches identified in the survey section, cross-references between sections of the guide in order to suggest links between texts, contexts, and criticism, suggestions for further reading. Part of the Routledge Guides to Literature series, this volume is essential reading for all those beginning detailed study of The Catcher in the Rye and seeking not only a guide to the novel but a way through the wealth of contextual and critical material that surrounds Salinger's text.

The People We Meet in Stories Robert McParland, 2020-10-20 Novels bring us into fictional worlds where we encounter the lives, struggles, and dreams of characters who speak to the underlying pulse of society and social change. In this book, post-World War II America comes alive again as literary critic Robert McParland tilts the rearview mirror to see the characters that captured the imaginations of millions of readers in the most popular and influential novels of the 1950s. This literary era introduced us to Holden Caulfield, Augie March, Lolita, and other antiheroes. Together with popular culture heroes such as Perry Mason and James Bond, they entertained thousands of readers while revealing the underlying currents of ambition, desire, and concern that were central to the American Dream. Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man and James Baldwin's Go Tell It on the Mountain and Giovanni S. Room explored racial issues and matters of identity that reverberate still today. The works of Jack Kerouac, the Beat poets Allen Ginsberg and Gregory Corso, and the clever and creative William S. Burroughs and his Naked Lunch challenged conventional perspectives. The People We Meet in Stories will appeal to readers discovering these works for the first time and to those whose tattered paperbacks reveal a long relationship with these key works in American literary history.
