Environmental Awareness and Governance Mohamed Mliless,David Stringer,Mohammed Larouz,2025-09-04 Environmental Awareness and Governance Ecolinguistic and Discourse Perspectives is a comprehensive exploration that delves into the intricate relationship between language discourse and environmental issues This book begins by examining the role of environmental governance in Moroccan political parties electoral programs followed by an analysis of how Moroccan online media communicates water stress as a risk issue It also provides an ecolinguistic analysis of a computer animated Netflix film The Sea Beast and discusses the impact of climate change on Moroccan agriculture particularly focusing on the Generation Green strategy The editors and contributors explore the role of translation in the environmental movement and discusses the shift from the Anthropocene to the Capitalocene in the context of global climate change They also provide a critical discourse analysis of the environmental discourse of the COP27 highlighting the North South divide The latter part of this book focuses on environmental literacy and awareness among students and also examines the environmental awareness of Moroccan university students and its impact on their environmental practices The book further discusses the role of visual language in environmental representation using Moroccan cinema as a case study It explores the intersection of language translation and posthumanism focusing on cross species interaction in Margaret Atwood s trilogy This book concludes with an ecocritical interpretation of solastalgia in Mohsin Hamid s Exit West and a generic ecocritical reading of climate change in Kim Stanley Robinson s Science in the Capital Trilogy Each chapter provides a unique perspective on environmental issues making it a comprehensive resource for anyone interested in environmental studies

Food in Margaret Atwood's Speculative Fiction Katarina Labudova,2022-11-10 This book looks at Margaret Atwood s use of food motifs in speculative fiction Focusing on six novels The Handmaid s Tale and The Testaments the Maddaddam trilogy and The Heart Goes Last Katarina Labudova explores the environmental ecological and cultural questions at play and the possible future scenarios which emerge for humanity s survival in apocalyptic and post apocalyptic conditions Labudova argues that food has special relevance in these novels and that characters hunger limited food choices culinary creativity and eating rituals are central to Atwood s depictions of hostile environments She also links food to hierarchy dominance and oppression in Atwood s novels and foregrounds the problem of hunger both psychological or physical caused by pollution and loss of contact with the natural and authentic The book shows how Atwood s writing draws from a range of genres including apocalyptic fiction science fiction speculative fiction dystopia utopia fairy tale myth and thriller and how food is an important highly versatile motif linking these intertextual threads
