Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world s Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide

Higher Education Transformation in Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2024-11-05 This book critically interrogates the notion of transformation in higher education focusing on epistemological and structural issues in postcolonial and contemporary Africa The book considers the multifaceted challenges facing higher education in the continent and uses the concept of transformation as a common thread weaving through a range of issues including epistemology identity relevance research collaboration and decoloniality Arguing for a holistic approach towards progressive and innovative education systems the book calls for a fundamental transformation that expands access enhances quality and competitiveness addresses past injustices and improves the capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Overall the book makes a powerful case for the power of transformation in higher education to shape the social economic and cultural fabric of society This book s critical evaluation of knowledge production in Africa will be an important read for researchers and policymakers involved in Africa s higher education sector

The Paradoxes of History and Memory in Post-Colonial Sierra Leone Sylvia Ojukutu-Macauley, Ismail Rashid, 2013-10-10 This anthology reflects the complex processes in the production of historical knowledge and memory about Sierra Leone and its diaspora since the 1960s The processes while emblematic of experiences in other parts of Africa contain their own distinctive features The fragments of these memories are etched in the psyche bodies and practices of Africans in Africa and other global landscapes and on the other hand are embedded in the various discourses and historical narratives about the continent and its peoples Even though Africans have reframed these discourses and narratives to reclaim and re center their own worldviews agency and experiences since independence they remained until recently heavily sedimented with Western colonialist and racist ideas and frameworks This anthology engages and interrogates the differing frameworks that have informed the different practices professional as well as popular of retelling the Sierra Leonean past In a sense therefore it is concerned with the familiar outline of the story of the making and unmaking of an African nation and its constituent race ethnic class and cultural fragments from colonialism to the present Yet Sierra Leone the oldest and quintessential British colony and most Pan African country in the continent provides interesting twists to this familiar outline The contributors to this volume who consist of different generations of very accomplished and prominent scholars of Sierra Leone in Africa the United States and Europe provide their own distinctive reflections on these twists based on their research interests which cover ethnicity class gender identity formation nation building resistance and social conflict Their contributions engage various paradoxes and transformative moments in Sierra Leone and West African history They also reflect the changing modes of historical practice and perspectives over the last fifty years of independence

The Athens of West Africa Daniel J. Paracka, Jr., 2004-03-01 This book is about Fourah Bay College FBC and its role as an institution of higher learning in both its African and international context The study traces the College's development through periods of missionary education 1816 1876 colonial education 1876 1938 and development education 1938 2001

Maat, the Moral Ideal in Ancient Egypt Maulana Karenga, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The Yoruba Traditional Healers of Nigeria Mary Adekson, 2004-01-05 This work examines the counseling approaches and techniques used by Yoruba traditional healers of Nigeria It also describes the functions performed by Yoruba traditional healers when they work within the Yoruba cultural milieu The information elicited from Yoruba traditional healers through videotape and interviews was analyzed by a Nigerian woma

Kwame Nkrumah's Politico-Cultural Thought and Politics Kwame Botwe-Asamoah, 2013-06-17 This study critically synthesizes and analyses the relationship between Kwame Nkrumah's politico cultural philosophy and policies as an African centered paradigm for the post independence African revolution It also argues for the relevance of his theories and politics in today's Africa

African Minorities in the New World Toyin Falola, Niyi Afolabi, 2007-11-13 This book uncovers the reality that new African immigrants now represent a significant force in the configuration of American polity and identity especially in the last forty years Despite their minority status African immigrants are making their marks in various areas of human endeavor and accomplishments from academic to business to even scientific inventions The demographic shift is both welcome news as well as a matter for concern given the consequences of displacement and the paradoxes of exile in the new location By its very connection to the Old African Diaspora the notion of a New African Diaspora marks a clear indication of a historical progression reconnecting continental Africa with the New World without the stigma of slavery Yet the notion of trans Atlantic slavery is never erased when the African diaspora is mentioned whether in the old or new world Within this paradoxical dispensation the new African diaspora must be conceived as the aftermath of a global migration crisis

Igbo Women and Economic Transformation in Southeastern Nigeria, 1900-1960 Gloria Chuku, 2005 Extrait de amazon com Among Africanists and feminists the Igbo speaking women of southeastern Nigeria are well known for their history of anti colonial activism which was most demonstrated in the 1929 War against British Colonialism Perplexed by the magnitude of the Women's War the colonial government commissioned anthropologists ethnographers to study the Igbo political system and the place of women in Igbo society The primary motive was to have a better understanding of the Igbo in order to avoid a repeat of the Women s War This study will analyze the complexity and flexibility of gender relations in Igbo society with emphasis on such major cultural zones as the Anioma the Ngwa the Onitsha the Nsukka and the Aro The Ancient Egyptian Family Troy D. Allen, 2008-07-25 Scholars in Egyptology have often debated the following question was the ancient Egyptian society organized along patrilineal or matrilineal lines In taking a fresh and innovative look at the ancient Egyptian family Allen attempts to solve this long standing puzzle Allen argues that the matrilineal nature of the ancient Egyptian family and social organization provides us with the key to understanding why and how ancient Egyptian women were able to rise to power study medicine and enjoy basic freedoms that did not emerge in Western Civilization until the twentieth century More importantly by examining the types of families that existed in ancient Egypt along with highlighting the ancient Egyptians kinship terms we can place the ancient Egyptian civilization in the cultural context and incubator of Black Africa This groundbreaking text is a must read for Historians and those working in African Studies and Egyptology
