The Bhagavad-gîta Charles Johnston,1908 The Bhagavad Gita is one of the noblest scriptures of India one of the deepest scriptures of the world It is rich in beauty and full of poetic power The characters stand out in heroic grandeur in the midst of a splendid setting of martial valor The figures of Arjuna very human in despondency and doubt and of Krishna majestic resolute persuasive are clear living of universal truth On another side the Bhagavad Gita is full of inspiration of religious devotion of keenest insight into the heart of man The conflict of motives that beset human action the clinging fetters of selfishness which check us in the path to the immortal the subtle evasions of the lurking whisperer in the heart all are clearly seen and vividly revealed Yet withal the claims of abstract thought are not forgotten every stage of Indian philosophy every shade of logic and metaphysics is given its place and many practical suggestions are put forward touching the problems of Indian politics and history hints as valid to day in human affairs as they were two thousand years ago Introduction page vii
